Efforts to Reduce Funds,
Save Shipyards Defeated

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has passed the defense bill, which would increase the fiscal year 1965 defense budget to $46 billion, by a vote of 92-0.

The 76-0 approval Wednesday night of the biggest money bill of the fiscal year — $46,774,401,000 — sends the appropriation to the House, which earlier voted to prevent a shutdown of any some $15 million less. After the House acts, a committee of both chambers will arrange a compromise figure.

The Senate amount is $1.4 billion less than Congress forked over to the Pentagon last year and more than $600 million below President Johnson's initial budget requests.

Angry Debate
The unanimous vote is misleading in a sense. Debate was angry at times and Russell, floor manager for the bill, had to fight off efforts to cut the amount and to protect government shipyards. After nine hours the veteran Georgia Democrat had his way—on every test.

Russell claimed huge multi-billion-dollar outlays for man-made power, missiles, submarines and other expensive military hardware must continue for the foreseeable future.

Many Bases Closed
Most of the dispute centered on efforts of Navy yard supporters to get a large share of nearly $2 billion in the bill to construct, repair and convert the

House Approves Increase In Social Security Benefits

Administration Leaders In Senate Will Fight for Health Care Provisions

BY EDMOND LEBRETON

WASHINGTON (AP) — A House-passed bill to increase Social Security benefits headed today into a Senate fight to add to it controversial health care provisions.

The House passed the measure Wednesday 288 to 8 without the hospitalization features for which President Johnson and the late President John F. Kennedy had pleaded.

The measure as it stands would give a 5 per cent raise to the 20 million Social Security retirees and admit more than half a million more persons to the rolls.

Here are a few examples of the proposed increases:

A retired worker now getting $40 monthly would get $42, one now getting $105 would get $110.30 and one now getting $127 would get $133.40.

A man and his wife now getting $60 would get $63, a couple getting $157.50 would get $164.37 and a couple now getting $190.50 would get $200.10.

Senators Plan Changes
Senate supporters of the administration plan, however, were already at work on amendments to write into the measure a cut-down version of the hospitalization proposal, possibly as a voluntary option for some or all of the cash increases provided.

The proposals have not been put in final form. Similar moves earlier this year by the House supporters were abandoned in the face of certain defeat by the Ways and Means Committee.

Any such provisions are sure to meet stiff opposition and might block final passage of the bill this year, especially since Congress is driving to adjourn before the Democratic National Convention begins Aug. 24.

Ribicoff Leads Drive
The Senate campaign to add hospitalization for persons 65 or older probably would be led at least initially by Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn., who fought for the plan as secretary of health education and welfare in the Kennedy Cabinet.

Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., co-author of the hospitalization proposal, is recuperating from an operation and is not expected back in the Senate for about two weeks.

The Senate Finance Committee has scheduled a closed meeting Tuesday to discuss handling of the bill. Chairman Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., is understood to be ready to insist on extensive hearings if administration supporters move to have the committee go into the health care matter.

As passed by the House, the bill would increase Social Security payments about $925 million annually by setting a new scale.

Outlook for Moon Photos Grows Brighter

Scientists Think Space Cameras Have 80 Per Cent Chance

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Scientists watched with growing elation today as Ranger 7 sailed peacefully through space with a cargo of cameras now given an 80 per cent chance of snapping history's first closeups of the moon.

Radioed information indicated all instruments aboard the 806-pound vehicle were in normal condition, including the television system designed to go into action just before impact at 8:25 a.m. Eastern Standard Time Friday.

There was no threat so far of the technical troubles that foiled six previous Ranger shots.

Past Worst Hurdles
Dr. William H. Pickering, director of the Jet Propulsion Laboratory which made and is guiding Ranger 7 on its 228,000-mile voyage, says the insect-shaped spacecraft has passed the worst of its hurdles and has a four-out-of-five chance of success.

He upped the odds from 50-50 Wednesday after a minor trajectory adjustment 100,000 miles out in space aimed Ranger 7 at a 50-300-mile area in the Sea of Clouds, just southwest of the center of the moon.

Ranger 7 now is cruising while scientists determine whether one final correction must be made before the spacecraft plunges into the moon at 5,000 miles an hour.

Cameras Position
Its six cameras peering out a hole in the side of its cone-shaped body, must be pointed straight down when they begin snapping 4,000 pictures in the final 13 minutes of flight.

If the craft is in proper position no correction will be made. Otherwise, tiny jets will be sent a signal one hour before impact to roll the craft around in space until the right photographic angle is achieved.

'States Rights Platform' of Republicans Under Attack

Australia Irked By Senate Vote on Meat Agreement

CANBERRA, Australia (AP) — Australia has sent a stiff note to the U.S. government on the Senate's approval of legislation repudiating the Australian-American meat agreement.

Informed sources said the note pointed out that cancellation of the agreement would have a potentially serious effect on relations between the United States and Australia.

The sources said the note also reminded the U.S. administration that negotiations on agricultural trade were an integral part of the Kennedy round of talks in Geneva and abrogation of the meat agreement could have widespread repercussions on the success of those negotiations.

The legislation, which now is awaiting action by the House of Representatives, would reduce quotas on imports of beef

BY RICHARD F. WHALEN

NEW YORK (AP) — Civil rights leaders in some cities expressed reservations about a call by Negro leaders for an end to most, if not all mass demonstrations in the nation until after Election Day.

The national leaders were critical of what they called the states rights platform adopted by the Republican convention that nominated Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater for president.

Their statement, issued Wednesday night after a summit meeting, said: "We believe that racism has been injected into the campaign by the Goldwater forces."

Urging a shift in tactics they called for a broad curtailment of mass marches, mass picketing and mass demonstrations until after Election Day, and more emphasis on getting more Negroes registered to vote.

Not Endorsing Johnson
Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, took pains to make it clear that the summit statement should not be interpreted as an endorsement of President Johnson's candidacy.

He also said in answer to a question that the action had not been taken in order to reduce the so-called white backlash described as the resentment of whites reacting to mass demonstrations by Negroes.

A spot check by The Associated Press indicated that several civil rights leaders on the local level intend to go ahead with demonstrations when they feel they are required to get results.

Jesse Gray, leader of the Harlem rent strikes, said: "We'll continue to have demonstrations in Harlem in spite of what Wilkins says."

Fanatic Sect Crushed in N. Rhodesia

LUSAKA, Northern Rhodesia (AP) — White-officer African troops crushed a suicidal attack today by warriors of the fanatic Lumpa religious sect 500 miles northeast of Lusaka and took over the sect's village head quarters.

The government announced 30 sect members were killed and about 100 wounded. Two soldiers were injured slightly in this development of a campaign to stamp out murder and arson by spear-bearing followers of the self-styled prophetess Alice Lenshina.

Charge From Stockade
The Lumpas were reported to have charged from their stockade against the troops after rejecting a call to come out peacefully. The village was hasmo which they had renamed Sione in an approximation of the biblical Zion.

A search revealed Prophetess Alice, a matronly woman in her 40s, had disappeared, perhaps fleeing into the Rhodesian copper mining region. A hunt was instituted for this leading figure in the holy war.

Terrified refugees said Lum 8, his brother John 6 and Raphael 11 were among men in death in two neighboring villages earlier this week, then drove 150 women and children into grass huts and burned them alive. The villages were Chipwata and Eumabundu.

Some 1,000 Africans fled to the mission station at Mulanga 20 miles away seeking protection Wednesday.

Previously the government had reported 41 dead in recent disorders including 300 Lumpas and 3 policemen.

The Chinese Communists are firmly opposed to a schismatic meeting convened by leaders of the Soviet Communist party, the Chinese declared.

Peking's refusal to attend a showdown meeting of the world's Communist parties was contained in a letter dated July 28 from the Central Committee of the Chinese Communist party to the Soviet Communist party. Contents of the letter were monitored in Tokyo from a broadcast by the New China News Agency.

The tragedy occurred shortly after nine cabin cruisers had returned to the beach after taking the children for a boat ride. Most of the youngsters were already frolicking in the water when the three boys jumped from a late returning craft into water 12 feet deep.

Isle Royale Site of Oshkosh Dig Camp

Post-Crescent's Charles House To Record Work of Expedition

OSHKOSH—The Oshkosh Public Museum will conduct a three-purpose scientific expedition to Isle Royale, an island on Lake Superior which contains hundreds of ancient copper mines worked by an unknown prehistoric people.

The expedition, consisting of nine members including Post-Crescent Staff Writer Charles House, will live in a tent camped at McCargo Cove about 13 miles from the Canadian shoreline.

The prehistoric copper mines date to a period before Christ according to Museum Director John Kuony. Though there have been previous scientific studies of the works there, anthropologists have not been able to determine the identity of the ancient peoples.

"Our job," said Kuony, "is to find out."

The expedition also seeks to study the wolf-moose population on the island which is volcanic in origin and which is some 45 miles in length.

Years ago the island was known to have wolves, moose and caribou, but these were killed off by hunting pressure.

More recently there has been an attempt to re-establish a moose population but the herd did not flourish because of a large number of weaklings runs and cripples. Some 10 years ago, under the direction of the Wisconsin Conservation Department, a pack of wolves was released for the purpose of keeping down the weaklings of the herd and to improve it on a survival of the fittest basis.

The imported wolves were taken from zoos and parks elsewhere and released on an experimental basis. # Makarios Hits Acheson Effort At Mediation

Charges 'Cyprus Problem Deflected From Its Course'

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — President Makarios of Cyprus said today former U.S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson and other persons are "self-invited mediators who are deflecting the Cyprus problem from its course."

Makarios, in a statement to newsmen, said Acheson and the others "have worked out unacceptable plans" for solution of the dispute.

The Cypriot archbishop named Acheson but did not identify the "others." Acheson is now in Geneva, where U.N. Cyprus mediator Sakarai Tuomioja has headquarters.

Makarios told newsmen that Acheson, who is representing President Johnson at Geneva, had submitted a plan.

"But it was rejected not only by us but also by the Greek government," Makarios said.

His words confirmed reports that Acheson had proposed a solution. Makarios did not give details, but published reports have described the plan as providing for union of Cyprus with Greece, and Greek cession of the island of Kastellorizon to Turkey.

Turkish Base Provided

In addition, the plan reportedly called for establishment of a Turkish military base on Cyprus, the creation on Cyprus of two Swiss-type cantons for Turkish-speaking Cypriots, with their own leaders heading the cantons and compensation for Turkish Cypriots leaving the island.

In his prepared statement, Makarios indicated he had some difference of opinion with the Greek government prior to his arrival here Monday.

"But my talks with Premier George Papandreu were of a paramount importance and I believe they constitute a decisive turn in the development of the Cyprus problem," he said.

He once again expressed doubt that efforts exerted by U.N. mediator Tuomioja would end successfully.

"I consider unlikely that the procedure followed in Geneva will have positive results," Makarios said.

Escapees From Green Bay Jail Are Captured

Both Men Seized By Madison Police Early This Morning

MADISON (AP)—Two prisoners who escaped from the Green County jail in Monroe Wednesday night were captured in Madison today.

They were identified as Kenneth Lee Roehl, 19, of Brodhead, and Dennis Carroll La Brosse, 22, of Madison.

Roehl was spotted by Madison police as he walked across a parking lot on East Washington Ave. and La Brosse was seized in the yard of a near East Side fuel company.

Both men were taken into custody without incident.

Capture of the men brought to an end a search in which 40 officers and bloodhounds took part. Sheriff Wilbur Deininger of Green County said the men hid in a corn field after escaping from the jail. Authorities said it was not immediately determined how the pair reached Madison.

Deininger said both had served time in the state reformatory at Green Bay. The sheriff said Roehl had a record dating to 1960 and LaBrosse, to 1956. In both cases the sheriff included juvenile offenses.

Awaiting Trial
The pair was awaiting trial on separate breaking and entering charges. They had been held pending court appearance scheduled for early next month.

The sheriff said first word on the escape came from a farm wife who called the jail at 7:45 p.m. asking if any prisoners were on the loose. She said she had seen two young men in light blue prison coveralls running across a field.

The sheriff said the jail's common room was open at the time to all prisoners and was occupied by four others who were playing cards. The four said in answer to questions that Roehl and LaBrosse were in their cells but when told to check, it was discovered they were gone.

The sheriff said it would have been possible for the other four to have escaped.

Small Window
Roehl and LaBrosse got out of the jail, which has no bars, by squeezing through a small window in one of the cells. The sheriff said they apparently had jammed a piece of paper into the slot for the bolt that holds the heavy mesh screens closed.

The sheriff said there had been extensive cleaning in the cell during the day and they may have taken advantage of the activities to put the paper in place.

Deininger said he had tugged at the screens after the cleaning was completed and thought they were secure.

The hunt was joined by Green County's 14 deputies, 15 special deputies, Dane County Sheriff Jack Leslie and four of his men who brought the dogs, and four off-duty Madison police officers who volunteered to help.

Post-Crescent Staff Writer House, a competent woodsman and amateur naturalist, will work with the members of the expedition in each phase of their studies. He will report their findings to readers of the Post-Crescent on a day-to-day basis.

In a letter of invitation from Robert Hruska, House was informed that he had been selected to accompany the expedition.

The expedition will be directed by Kuony and Hruska, curator of anthropology and assistant director of the Oshkosh Museum.

Another member of the science team is Dr. Robert Ritzenhauer, of the Milwaukee Public Museum and one of the most distinguished anthropologists in the United States.

Party Members
Attending the expedition also are:

Harry Brown, Big Bend, Wis., a noted nature-photographer; Winston Elting, professor of architecture at the University of Illinois and a noted outdoorsman; Steven Hitchcock, Oshkosh, a member of the school board and an active naturalist; R. Owen Jones, Milwaukee, a prominent authority on sunken ships and diving and recovery methods; and Jacob Shapiro, professor of geology at Wisconsin State University.

Members of the expedition are now establishing their camp on site of the prehistoric mines of Isle Royale. House's reports which will begin Monday are expected to be a daily feature in this newspaper until the return of the party in mid-August.

of $42 to $133.40 for a single worker, up to $281.20 for a family with dependent children. The maximums would go up in future years, as high as $300 for a family.

The bill also would step up the Social Security tax paid by employers and employees, in part by increasing from $4,800 to $5,400 the wage base on which they are levied. The increase would amount to $31.20 each next year.

The bills would also add about 600,000 aged persons to the coverage requirements for the benefit of persons, mostly widows, 72 and older.

It would also extend children's benefits to age 22 for surviving children who continue their education and would bring under social security coverage self-employed doctors of medicine and internes.

2 Mothers Face Trials For Murders

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP) — Mike Davenport, 2½ years old, was found burned to death in his bed early Wednesday. Last Thursday Marsha Casady, 4, was found fatally burned in her bed.

The mothers of the children have been charged with starting the fires. Both are being held in the psychiatric ward at St. John's Hospital.

Barbara Davenport, 26, was charged with first-degree murder Wednesday after she told police she started the fire which claimed the life of young Mike. Police said an empty can in the bedroom of the home apparently had contained an inflammable liquid.

Girl Suffers Burns
Another child, Debra Davenport, 4, suffered minor burns. Mrs. Davenport had first- and second-degree burns on her face.

Police said Mrs. Davenport gave no explanation for her actions. She had undergone psychiatric treatment recently.

Patricia Casady, 32, was charged with first-degree murder last week in the death of Marsha. Officers quoted the victim's sister, Susan, 7, as saying she saw her mother set the fire. An empty can was also found in the charred bedroom of the Casady home.

The women, apparently unacquainted, lived about nine blocks apart.

Mrs. Davenport's husband, Herbert, is a traveling salesman and was not at home. Mrs. Casady is separated from her husband.

Electric Company Says Time Will be 4-5:30 a.m. Friday

KAUKAUNA — The south-central part of Outagamie County served by Kaukauna Electrical and Water Department and the northeast side of the city will be without electrical service from about 4 to 4:30 a.m. Friday.

W. S. Baer, utility manager, said the Delanglade Street substation, serving the Outagamie County Trunk J and Strasburg area circuits, will be off while two 12-kilovolt power lines are transferred.

One line is being transferred at the substation to clear an area for a new substation, to be installed late this summer or early in fall. The other is being moved on Tobacco Street to allow for street widening.

The area without power is bounded on the north by Outagamie County Trunk UU and on the east by Outagamie County Trunk U. The western boundary includes all homes on the east side of State 55 (Delanglade Street) to Lawe Street, on the south side of Lawe Street from Delanglade Street to Ducharme Street, and on the east side of Ducharme Street to Roosevelt Street.

The southern boundary includes all homes on the north side of Roosevelt Street through White City Park to State 96 (Plank Road), all homes on both sides of Plank Road to the Fox River and all homes north of the Fox River to the Brown-Outagamie county line.

Boy Injured in Shell Explosion Listed Improving

OSHKOSH — The condition of Jerry Wenzel, 17, Winneconne, who was injured seriously in the explosion of what was believed to be a 37mm shell which Tuesday killed his companion Dale Gehrke, 16, also of Winneconne, was described today as being improved.

Sheriff Richard Lowell said he visited Wenzel this morning at Mercy Hospital here. He said the boy's condition seemed to be quite improved.

The sheriff said Wenzel lost two fingers from his left hand and received shrapnel wounds on the right and left sides of his abdomen. The shrapnel had embedded itself in the flesh but had not damaged any of the internal organs.

Shrapnel pieces were taken Wednesday to the State Crime Laboratory in Madison and are being turned over to the demolition section at the Truxair Air Force Base for determination as to the type of shell.

Because one of the railroads has one rail several inches higher than the other rail, the county crews had to blacktop the area by the tracks as best as they could to correct the conditions at the crossing.

Appleton Tax Group Claims Unequal Council Treatment

President Says Unit Barred From Closed Sessions, Press Allowed

BY WILLIAM C. CAREY
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

The president of the Appleton Taxpayers Association today claimed representatives of his group have been barred from closed city council and school board meetings while representatives of the press were not.

G. K. Willecke made the allegation in a letter to Mayor Clarence Mitchell, who will return to the city Friday after attending the American Municipal Association convention in Miami, Fla.

He said "this alleged practice is totally contrary to the concept of equal treatment of all citizens." He asked Mitchell for "an expression as to what policy the council will follow in the future."

Willecke's claim that the council has held closed-door meetings received a quick denial from Ald. Kenneth Loos (3rd), president of the 20-member common council.

Wants Specifics
"I've never been in on any closed-door or secret meetings of the council," Loos said. "I would like to have specific instances cited by the complainant parties."

In his letter, Willecke criticized the council for permitting press and radio representatives to sit in on committee of the whole sessions, claiming association representatives on occasion had been asked to leave.

However, no specific incidents or dates were cited by Willecke.

One of Methods
"You are aware, I am sure, of the activities of the Appleton Taxpayers Association. It has been our avowed purpose to alert the citizens of Appleton and have them take a greater interest in the operation of their business, the municipality of Appleton," Willecke wrote.

He said one of the methods used by the association is to have representatives as observers at most of the council meetings.

Willecke said in making arrangements within his group to have members attend council meetings this year, he was informed out when the council reformed of alleged problems of the past.

Want Same Treatment
"Although we do not necessarily subscribe to the idea and meeting of the council within mending Reynolds name Paragreed to the legality of closed the past two years, and that nell to the vacancy on the high meetings, we would not at this was specifically for discussing court bench.

were assured that our representative would receive the same treatment in this respect as granted the press representatives or any other citizens," Willecke added.

Willecke told a Post-Crescent reporter he also sent a letter to the Appleton Board of Education in which a complaint was made that school commissioners held closed meetings.

Asked by the reporter if he could document his claim of council closed meetings, Willecke said he would later, if necessary, after talking with some association members who had made verbal complaints to him.

Little to Say
Loos said he had little to say about the association's allegations, commenting, "This closed door meeting business is all news to me. There is nothing to it."

He said committee of the whole sessions are held to permit informal discussion, and Dieterich of Milwaukee one week ago.

Attorneys representing the bar associations from Shawano, Langlade and Outagamie counties began writing to Gov. John Reynolds two days ago recommending Reynolds name Parnell to the vacant seat on the high court bench.

The Shawano County Bar Association has polled its membership and unanimously recommended to Reynolds he name Parnell.

The bar associations from Langlade and Outagamie counties have not been able to meet to take formal actions, but an official of the Outagamie bar association said the two counties' attorneys have written individually to Reynolds.

In addition, several prominent lawyers from Green Bay (Reynolds' home town) are said to be urging the governor to name Parnell to the vacant court seat.

A similar move in behalf of Parnell was made in May of 1962 when Supreme Court Justice Grover L. Broadfoot died.

Marquette Law Graduate
An even earlier movement in his behalf took place in 1958 when Roland J. Steinie, Milwaukee, resigned to run for the U.S. Senate.

Parnell was born in Somerset March 15, 1902, and is a graduate of St. John University, Minnesota, and Marquette University Law School. He was a member of the Appleton law firm of Benton, Bosser, Becker,

Wolf River Planners List Ways to Improve

Menominee's Economy

A seven-point "action" program to improve Menominee County's economic status has nominees with the aid of the State Historical Society, the Tivier Basin Regional Planning Commission.

In a letter Wednesday to Frank Zeidler, director of the State Department of Resource Development, commission chairman Gordon Bubolz listed the proposed projects and commission plans to implement them.

Projects being considered, Bubolz wrote, are establishment of a 4-H camp on Peshigo Lake, of an Indian museum, curio or gift shop and model Indian village and of a park in the Dales of the Wolf area.

Make Park Tables
Also, Bubolz suggested Menominee Enterprises, Inc. be contacted to manufacture park tables for all levels of government. He also wrote that the commission's recently formed Transportation and Rights-of-Way committee will meet soon to consider ways to implement the governor's suggestion to improve State 47 and 55 in the county.

The commission chairman also said it was his feeling the federal government should give Menominee County an "economic severance allowance" of at least $6 million to be used to bring the county up to par with other counties in terms of public facilities and to provide capital for establishment of economic enterprises.

Plan Starts In Appleton This Monday

Starting Monday, 14,000 Appleton homes will begin receiving rubbish collection once every two weeks.

Public Works Director Robert W. Bues said today all arrangements have been completed for the accelerated trash pickup service in the community.

For several years, Appleton residents have had once-a-month trash collections. The city council recently authorized the improved service.

"We believe we have a very good collection system worked out now that will effect economies and convenience while providing increased services," Bues said.

Routes Reviewed
For the first time in several years, the city's collection routes have been reviewed under the supervision of Sanitation Division Supt. Hollis Brouard.

As a result, beginning next week the city will have 19 rubbish collection districts instead of four as in the past.

During the past 10 days, sanitation division employees have distributed cards listing the garbage and trash collection schedules to more than 14,000 residences in Appleton.

Bues said that as a result of the stepped-up rubbish pickups, a few householders could expect to have different days for garbage collections. These will continue to be on a twice-a-week basis.

One Change
One change affecting all homeowners concerns collection of grass, brush, garden and other debris. Instead of this being collected with the garbage, in the future it will be included in the rubbish collection.

Bues and Brouard have been holding briefing sessions with personnel in the sanitation division, illustrating their explanation of the new rubbish route.

Planning Commission Says Survey Necessary for Bridge, Road Area

MENASHA — A survey of the town board's attitude that $6,500 for a survey of land not yet owned was too much. The town board Monday night said it felt the sum was too much to spend for land not yet owned nor even determined to be the bridge site.

It will be up to the executive committee of the planning commission to seek a means to obtain the survey. Franchett said the proposed right-of-way has been in the process of development since 1961, and shouldn't be considered a spur of the moment decision, he said. Numerous locations and bridge crossings have been considered during this period.

Two Bridges

The board felt that one crossing from the town to U.S. 41 would be sufficient. Franchett said traffic counts and surveys have shown two proposed bridge are necessary to move the traffic, and one bridge crossing to Stroebe's island as considered by the board wouldn't be sufficient.

The board felt the proposed right-of-way along Midway Road in the town would hamper the development of commercial property along the railroad tracks.

The planning commission feels the freeway will increase the value of the property for commercial use as industry is looking for locations with good access to highways. Franchett said.

L. W. Empey district highway engineer, Green Bay, said that his department has no direct interest in the project at this point, however, his department may become active at a later date.

Bus Fares to Be Aired at PSC Hearing

Whether increased adult fares charged by the Fox River Bus Lines Inc. should be made permanent will be aired at a Wisconsin Public Service Commission hearing Aug. 11.

It has been scheduled for 3:30 p.m. at the Outagamie County Courthouse, according to John F. Goetz, Madison, the commission's acting secretary.

Fox River Bus Lines provides service in Appleton, Neenah and Menasha.

Request Filed

On March 26 the firm filed a request with the PSC to increase certain adult fares in Appleton on a trial basis.

The commission authorized the increase on April 16 on a 90-day trial basis with the stipulation that a hearing then be held.

The adult fares are 20 cents when paid in cash, four tokens or 60 cents, or seven tokens or $1.05.

A spokesman for the bus firm said it may request extension of time for a hearing so that figures can be compiled for the 90-day trial period.

Red Tape, Foreign Policy

Steinhilber Attacks Government Spending

NEENAH — Bureaucratic red tape, a weak-kneed foreign policy of a diplomat shooting down an American plane and pilot, riots and wanton government spending were targets of campaigning Jack Steinhilber, candidate for the Republican nomination for congress Wednesday, when he talked before the Neenah Kiwanis and the Menasha Steinhilber for Congress Committee.

As Winnebago County District Attorney for 7 1/2 years, Steinhilber has seen red tape procedures grow and strew themselves throughout the welfare department, for example, consuming mountains of needless effort. Local governments are losing control of expenditures and personnel in exchange for federal aid, he said.

I sight one instance in the Winnebago County Welfare Department which was requesting five additional case workers last spring and the county board turned down the budget request. The Wisconsin Department of Public Welfare came back and told the county board to approve the request or welfare departments throughout the state would lose the more than 50 per cent support they receive from federal funds.

I believe such dictating should stop and that local control of matters be resumed, he said.

For too long the federal government has been promising the sun, moon and stars and handing the taxpayer the bill.

It is time every citizen arose from the 'who cares' morass, time for every citizen to become informed and time for each one of us to disseminate this knowledge to others by talking common sense.

What kind of foreign policy picture he was painting of the American flag, the imprisonment of a diplomat shooting down an American plane and pilot, riots in the Panama Canal, he asked.

The people have lost control of their affairs when in the same year it lets the department of agriculture form a soil bank taking land out of cultivation to solve its problems and approves a project in the upper Colorado River basin to bring thousands of acres into productive cultivation.

Appraiser Course to Be Held in Appleton

NEENAH — The Fox Valley Chapter of the Society of Real Estate Appraisers will again sponsor the 24-hour lecture and practical application course on the 'Principles and Techniques of Residential Appraising'.

The course which will begin Jan. 11, 1965 will be held in Appleton. It is to be conducted by Carlton F. Williams, SRA, who will give information to enrollment prospects.

Suggestion Box Has Become Safety Valve

BY HAI BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Some do-nothings in the stenographic years ago many business firms pool to wear purple lipstick at started the custom of putting up work " suggestion boxes. The thought was that the com- A round robin letter signed by pany would benefit from practi- all the girls in the stenographic cal tips from its employees and pool threatening to quit en that the morale of employees masse if they all don't get new would benefit, too, from the flat electric typewriters — such as tering knowledge that manage- the executive secretary has ment was humbly seeking their The box also contains such help oddments as 68 torn executive 'After all we're a team' the memos, 37 broken pencil stubs announcement on the bulletin a few aspirin tablets and a note board usually read "and a saying 'Help, help! I'm a slave team wins with the ideas of all in a 15th-foot salt mine' The truth is that the office So the night was a suggestion ei a device to help the firm boxes, born of high hopes bloomed in thousands of offices throughout the land. It is a safe ty valve to let off employee steam a way for them to com- municate their groans, gripes and grievances.

Realistic Cynicism
Over the years in many of fices a certain realistic cyni- cism replaced the earlier en- thusiastic idealism. The boxes began to contain fewer and fewer worthwhile suggestions. They became more, and more reservoirs of com- plaints, office gossip and wag- gish remarks. Many a boss quit opening the suggestion box after discovering the most popular suggestion was "Why don't you resign, Big Daddy? What this outfit needs is fresh brains at the top." Today many a company head has washed his hands of the problem of the suggestion box. He often leaves it to be opened by a junior executive in the per- sonnel department.

Young Man
And that young man, if he bothers to read the missives at all, is likely to find the box con- tains such familiar material. Twelve wads of chewing gum left their surreptitiously by the office boy. Ninety-seven pieces of wad- ded up carbon paper. An unsigned note in feminine handwriting "If you don't stop that smart in the supply de- partment from pinching me black and blue every time I go there to get some paper clips, I'm going to call the police." An anonymous note saying "Why is it we never get any- thing but blueberry pie in the company cafeteria? Does the boss own a blueberry farm on the side?"

Anonymous Note
Another anonymous note say- ing, "Why is it whenever I go to the cafeteria the blueberry pie is always gone? All there is left is chocolate pie and I'm aller- gic to chocolate." "I take this way of telling you —as I've told you 14 times in person — reads a message from the office grouch — that it has been 13 years since I've had a merit raise. Are they going out of style? I'm tired of doing ev- erybody else's work around here and getting no credit for it." Still another asks: What married vice president is dating his red haired Girl Friday? The old maid executive secre- tary writes: "Far be it from me to criticize others, but it seems to me it detracts from the digni-

Reimbursement Sought for Lakes Fisheries

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Great Lakes Commercial Fish- ery Advisory Committee said Tuesday the federal Bureau of Commercial Fisheries will be asked to approve a per-pound reimbursement for losses incur- red by Great Lakes commercial fishermen during last year's scare of botulism in smoked fish. Roy A. Jensen, a member of the Michigan Fish Producers Association said the smoked fish industry would ask that commercial fishermen be paid 17 cents and 12 cents per pound for No. 1 and No. 2 chubs, re- spectively, and that processors be paid 32 cents and 19 cents. Secretary of Interior Stewart Udall said in Washington Mon- day that $400,000 in federal funds had been allocated to aid the Great Lakes Fishing indus- try. Fishermen and processors suffered substantial financial loss when botulism was found in smoked fish.

Woman in Family of 14 Has 14th Child

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) —Mrs. Harry W. Weber went home from St. Joseph's Hospital Mon- day with her 14th child, Jac- queline. Mrs. Weber's mother, Mrs. Parker A. Talley, also had 14 children. All of them were born at St. Joseph's too. One difference, though, Mrs. Weber 36 said, "I've had nine faster. We both had our first child when we were 20 and she was 43 when she had her 14th."

Reapportionment of New York Ordered

NEW YORK (AP) —A federal court has ordered the Republi- can-controlled New York Legis- lature to base a reapportion- ment measure by next April 1 year terms.

The special three-judge court directed Monday that senators and assemblymen be elected Nov. 3 on the basis of present legislative districts. It ruled, however, that those elected in November can serve only one term, to base a reapportion- ment instead of the normal two- year terms.

Tipsy Drivers Lose Licenses

Neenah, Showano Men Fined for Driving Offenses

Two drivers had their licenses revoked and were fined when they appeared in separate courts this week on charges of driving while under the influence of alcohol.

— Raymond C. Krieger, 60, 912 Harding St., Neenah, was fined $125 and costs when he appeared Wednesday in Winnebago County Court.

— George Engels, 65, Showano was fined $100 when he appeared Monday in Clintonville Municipal Justice Court.

Krieger was arrested May 8 in the 300 block of Winnebago Avenue in Neenah when he failed to stop after he was involved in a collision with another vehicle.

Neenah police cruising in the area at the time noticed the collision and stopped Krieger within two blocks of the accident.

Engels was arrested Saturday in the Town of Larrabee by Waupaca County police.

Correction
A rural Kaukauna man awarded $650 in a court action Tuesday was knocked into unconsciousness and choked during a Oct. 6 fight in a Kaukauna tavern.

Outagamie County Court Branch 3 VanderHeiden had brought action against Gordon Kerrigan, also of route 2 Kaukauna charging him with assault. The Post-Crescent said the case resulted from a scuffle in the tavern.

Joseph VanderHeiden, route 2, Kaukauna, was awarded the damages by a 12-man jury in the tavern.

County Cook-Off

Carefully tipping the Double Deck Chicken Salad out of its star mold, Mrs. Ray Melchert, route 3 Seymour prepares her finished entry for the judges. This salad is in two layers, one of cottage cheese and sour cream, the other featuring diced chicken. It won solid points for its attractiveness and brought second place to Mrs. Melchert.

Cheryl Mueller, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Mueller, 438 Foote St. Seymour is shown at the right preparing the prize recipe of the Outagamie County Cook-off. The salad which she always prepares in a ring mold combines lemon flavored gelatin, diced canned pears, creamy cottage cheese, shredded cheddar and whipped cream.

Four Prizewinning Cooks Prepare Their Favorite Salads in Outagamie Contest

An interesting salad with a particularly apt name is the Frosted Salad being prepared at the left by Mrs. Joseph G. Verstegen, 724 Charles St. Little Chute. Mellons with its unusual whipped topping featuring both shredded American cheese and grated Parmesan, this gelatin salad combines fruit with tiny marshmallows and carbonated beverage of the lemon lime variety. A creative cook and avid recipe collector, Mrs. Verstegen admits to "ad libbing" a bit when preparing this recipe she found in a farm journal about eight years ago.

Both Teen-Age Finalist, Alternate From Seymour

The ever friendly annual cook-off among the weekly prize cooks in the Outagamie County Dairy Month contest was a little different this third year of competition. The event was held for the first time in the efficient kitchens of the Wisconsin Michigan Power Co. Only one junior cook was judged good enough to compete in the finals — and for the first time, she won over her older and more experienced competition.

Cheryl Mueller, 17-year-old senior at Seymour High School was judged the cook to represent Outagamie County at the regional cook-off in Green Bay. Her alternate, second place winner, was another cook from the Seymour area, Mrs. Ray Melchert, route 3 Seymour.

When Cheryl's name was announced by County Home Agent Judith Stellwagen, even her cooking competitors broke into smiles because the Seymour girl is no newcomer to the cook-off finals. She has participated as a junior weekly winner each year and in 1963 won second place. Active in 4-H club work, Cheryl has always been interested in foods and nutrition. She was one of the delegates of the Seymour 4-H Club to the state club week in Madison this summer and also attended the citizenship short course in Washington, D.C.

Last year's grand winner, Mrs. Paul Rohloff, 850 E. Northland Ave., Appleton, was chosen again for the finals held this year at the Wisconsin Michigan Power Co. ## Egg, Milk Bases for Cool Masks

There's nothing like a cooling beauty mask to perk up sagging spirits these hot summer days. And, one doesn't have to look beyond the refrigerator to find the makings. Here, for example, is an easy-to-make mask with buttermilk as a main ingredient.

Mix a half cup of buttermilk and enough cornmeal to form a stiff paste. Spread it over the face and neck. Being granular, it is especially absorptive — good for oily skin. Remove with warm water.

Milk has a softening effect on the skin. If the face is rough from sun and wind, try this mask made of powdered milk.

Mix powdered milk with a teaspoon of boric acid. Add witch hazel and stir to a creamy paste. Spread over the face and allow to dry. It is easily removed with warm water and soap.

Egg White Mask
An old favorite skin mask is perhaps simplest of all.

Beat the white of an egg and smooth over the face. Remove with cool water. Dry skin should never know harsh astringents. Rather, use a mild skin freshener.

Probably the most efficient only skin mask and the one used almost universally by professional beauticians is the one described as beauty clay.

So-called beauty clay is a very fine powdery substance

NEW LONDON — The engagement of Miss Carol Ann Krake to Alvin Lester Jones has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Krake, route 1, New London. Mr. Jones is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Jones, 312 Elm St., New London.

The bride-elect is a student at Hortonville Union High School. Her fiancé is with the Farmers Co-Op Oil Co., New London.

first discovered in China and skin of the face and throat. Let known as kaolin. It can be dry thoroughly. Notice the bought in any drug store. Mix drawing sensation. ## Liquid Detergent Will Remove Oil From Synthetics

How do you remove grease spots from synthetics?

Dacron is one synthetic that picks up grease or oil easily and it takes rather strong treatment to remove it. Do try to treat the fabric when the grease stain is fresh.

Before you launder a garment that has oil stains pretreat it with a concentrated heavy duty liquid detergent. That's the kind that's advertised for cleaning walls and washing very dirty clothes. Pour a small amount on the stain and work it back and forth between your thumbs and forefingers. This action loosens the stain. Then duty granular detergent by machine wash the entire garment in this using a paste of it. Use it in the same detergent the same way as the liquid.

Federal Suits Filed Against Restaurants

Hearing Is Scheduled In October

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP) — U.S. Atty Gen. Robert F. Kennedy has filed the first federal suit under the new Civil Rights Act against 15 eating places here.

Another Group Of Astronauts To be Named

Each Crew Must Be in Training For 8 Months

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Another group of astronauts may be named before many weeks to man the third mission of Project Gemini, the middle phase of the U.S. program to place a man on the moon within the decade.

Most of the Gemini flights will be of long duration — up to 14 days — and will involve space training maneuvers vital to Project Apollo's moon landing objective.

Primary and backup crews for the first two manned Gemini flights already have been selected. Donald K. Slayton, coordinator of astronaut affairs, has indicated a third group will be picked by fall.

Slayton told a news conference Wednesday the third crew of four may be named well before the first manned Gemini mission now set for late December.

12 Flights

The Gemini schedule calls for 12 manned flights, with the launches spaced at 90-day intervals.

Each Gemini crew must spend eight months in special training. The second flight is scheduled for the first quarter of 1966 and the third for the second quarter. This, combined with the eight-month training schedule, would mean the third crew could be named no later than October or November.

Air Force Maj. Virgil I. Grissom, as pilot, and Navy Lt. Cmdr. John W. Young as copilot, are scheduled to man the December flight that will last only three orbits. Navy Cmdr. Walter M. Schurr and Air Force Maj. Thomas P. Stafford are the backup crew.

The basic objective of the Grissom mission will be to test the spacecraft that will be roughly twice the size of the one-man Project Mercury capsules. The recovery area will be in the Atlantic near Bermuda.

Four Days

The early 1965 flight will last four days and involve specific scientific experiments aimed directly at solving problems that must be answered before the moon shots get under way. Among the experiments will be the exposure of astronauts to the unknown hazards of outer space with no protection except decisions to the Supreme Court in this space suit.

Air Force Capt. James A. M. Divitt and Edward H. White — are the second flight's primary crew. Their backup pilots are Air Force Maj. Frank Borman and Navy Lt. Cmdr. James A. Lovell Jr.

Stepping into space, definitely is part of the third Gemini flight plan.

and managers of the 15 places have violated the law by refusing to serve Negroes. Earlier Wednesday Negro attorneys in South Carolina filed suits against two Orangeburg movie houses. The lawyers charged that Negroes were turned away from ticket windows where whites were accommodated.

Tuscaloosa Suit

The Tuscaloosa suit demanded that restaurants and lunch counters in the University city be forbidden to discriminate against Negroes. It also requested a preliminary injunction against the defendants.

There was no immediate ruling. Court sources said a hearing would not be held until October because of a crowded court docket for the three federal judges in Birmingham.

The suit covers virtually every sizable restaurant and lunch counter in Tuscaloosa, except a hotel restaurant and a cafeteria that dropped their racial barriers after the law took effect.

Special Provision In the suit, Kennedy is resorting for the first time to a provision of the Civil Rights Act which permits him, rather than private individuals, to initiate suit when he finds a "pattern or practice" of discrimination.

It also marks the fourth major legal test of the controversial U.S. program to place a public accommodations section in the Tuscaloosa, scene of some racial disturbance and violence.

Senator Says TV Violence Is Still Excessive

Little Improvement Evident Now From 1961-62 Season

BY JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Thomas J. Dodd said today prime television time is permeated with programs "featuring excessive crime, violence and debased moral standards."

In a statement prepared for the Senate Juvenile Delinquency subcommittee on the reopening of its hearings on television programming, the Connecticut Democrat said developments since its original inquiry in 1961-62 failed to demonstrate "the increased concern and cooperation we were led to expect."

Dodd, the subcommittee chairman, said that early this year he had ordered a study of current programs to assess whether the reduction of violence predicted by network officials in 1961 and 1962 had actually occurred.

"I find that with the exception of one network, CBS, very little improvement is evident," he said. "Not only did we fail to see an appreciable reduction of violence in new shows, but we also found that the most violent shows of the 1961-62 season have been syndicated and are now being reshown on independent networks and stations."

"We discovered that unjustifiable violence and brutality permeate new shows which center around college campuses, hospitals, psychiatrists' offices and other unlikely locations, in addition to the presence of violence in its earlier habitats—adventure, Western and detective programs."

Officials Called In calling officials of the three networks to testify, Dodd said from introducing remedial legislation. "One of the alternatives we have considered to assure the operation of the television industry in the best interests of the public."

Family Is Adjusting To Life in Unalaska

Return to 'Outside' for Another Load of Cattle, Building Supplies

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — expect to make a second trip before winter. How does a family from the gebrush prairies of Montana adjust to life on a remote island in the North Pacific Ocean?

A reporter asked Mrs. Rufus Choate the question Wednesday and she said "We like it."

Choate, a former Miles City, Mont., rancher, and his wife move about 500 miles to another chain of islands. Then no more. That's the end of United States territory.

Choate they bought for the trip. They took along 300 sheep, five horses and five pigs for the livestock ranch they hope to establish on the island.

Return Trip The Choates arrived back in town Monday aboard their vessel the Robert Eugene, to pick up more livestock and some building materials.

"I thought because there are no real trees that it would be a terrible place," said Mrs. Choate. "But its beautiful. The kids have had a ball."

The Choate children are Sue, 21, Jim, 19, and Ted, 10. They brought a friend, Jeff Craig, 14, along on their trip up to what Alaskans call "the outside."

Choate has leased a 265,000-acre spread from the Bureau of Land Management and plans to take his first wool clip to Portland, Ore., next spring aboard the Robert Eugene.

The property contains hundreds of military buildings erected during World War II.

Hunted House "We hunted up a house, but repairs are needed," said Choate. "The family will make the return trip in about a week. They

The "Boy Friend" is the production chosen for the second annual Kaukauna High School summer musical. Mrs. Gene Ploetz and Miss Karen Krumm are co-directors of the musical comedy spoof.

Cast members are Lynn Cherkasky, Kirk Weber, Ricki VanderVelden, Carol Schroeder, Gail School, Luann Schmalz, Jim Lindell, Scott Bay, Joe Eiting, John Reinke, Mary May, Bob Main, Sue Vils, Greg Dery, Kristi DeBruin and Herb Gosdeck. Dancing roles have gone to Betty Van Dyke, Caroline Brenzel, Sheri O'Dell, Jill Robin, Tom Vandenberg, Jim Niesen and Art Lamers.

Miss Donna Borchardt is accompanist. Assisting as student directors are Kathy Bamberv and Linda Plutchak. The play, which makes use of all the delightful props of life in the 20s, was a hit in both London and on Broadway. Costumes are composed of straw hats and blazers, knickers, long long necklaces, flouncy skirts and dropped waistlines combined in a razz-a-ma-tazz presentation that promises fun for children and their parents.

An Attempt to Get Percival into the water for a swim makes hilarious moments in the summer musical comedy. The pawn in the game is Bob Main, tugged at from all sides by Mary May Gail School and Luann Schmalz. Below, Lord Brockhurst engages in a bit of harmless fun while his wife stands horrified in the background. The characters are portrayed by Carol Schroeder, Greg Dery and Kristi DeBruin. A Charleston number brings back the 20s in a wild and wonderful way when Jim Lindell and Ricki VanderVelden, above, do the dance during a scene from "The Boy Friend" to open at 8:15 p.m. today at Kaukauna High School. At left, Jim kneeling begs Ricki to be his dancing partner as Sherry O'Dell and Joe Eiting sit one out. At right, the French maid, played by Sue Vils, reacts to Lynn Cherkasky and Kirk Weber.

Prize-Winning Salads

The other contestants whose recipes made them weekly winners and thus eligible for the cook-off were last year's finalist Mrs Paul Rohloff, Appleton, and Mrs Joseph G. Versteegen, Little Chute.

One of the most interesting facets of the month-long contest was the popularity of gelatin salads. Most of the recipes entered in the competition used gelatin in one form or another. Each of the weekly prize-winners is an excellent example of how either unflavored gelatin or the flavored prepared variety can be combined with fruits, cheeses, poultry and vegetables for some very fine eating.

The three judges right confer with the two planners of the Outagamie County dairy recipe contest cook-off for 1964. From the left are Miss Judith Stellwagen, Outagamie County home agent and contest chairman, Miss Mary Beth Kuester, home economist for the Wisconsin-Michigan Power Co., where the cook-off was held, and judges Mrs. Louise Fellows, home economist at the Wisconsin Gas Co. in Kaukauna, Miss Mary O'Leary, head of the home arts department at Appleton High School, and Mrs. Lillian Mackey, food editor of the Post-Crescent.

dissolve in boiling water. Add mayonnaise gradually, stirring chive cottage cheese, sour to blend. Add remaining ingredients, lemon juice and salt. Dients of second portion of recipe. Chill until partially set, then pour over cheese layer. Chill until firm. Recipe serves eight persons.

FROSTED SALAD

2 cups boiling water
2 cups clear carbonated beverage
1 can (29 ounces) crushed pineapple, drained
1 cup miniature marshmallows
2 large bananas, sliced
Whipped Cream Topping

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Stir in carbonated beverage. Drain pineapple, reserving juice for whipped cream topping.

Fold pineapple, marshmallows and bananas into gelatin. Pour into large bowl and chill. Add topping, which can be prepared while gelatin mixture is cooling. The entire salad is then chilled thoroughly until serving time.

WHIPPED CREAM TOPPING
1/2 cup sugar

2 tablespoons flour
1 cup pineapple juice (drained from crushed pineapple)
1 egg, slightly beaten
2 tablespoons butter

1/4 cup shredded American cheese
3 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese

Combine sugar and flour in saucepan. Stir in pineapple juice and egg. Cook over low heat until thickened. Remove from heat then add butter. Chill before folding into whipped cream. Pour over gelatin mixture. Sprinkle top generously with shredded American and grated Parmesan cheese. Chill.

TURKEY 'N' DAIRY SALAD
(Mrs. Paul Rohloff)

1 turkey leg or minced chicken
1 tablespoon butter
1 small onion
Salt, pepper
1/4 cup French dressing

1 pkg. lemon flavored gelatin
1/4 cup boiling water
2 tablespoons vinegar
1/2 teaspoon salt

1/2 cup canned small peas
1 tablespoon chopped onion
4 hard-boiled eggs

Lettuce leaves, stuffed olives
Sour Cream Dressing

Cut up turkey meat, brown in butter. Add onion, salt and pepper. Simmer until tender. Cool, then cut turkey meat into small pieces and marinate in French dressing for one hour. Refrigerate.

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Add vinegar, salt and white pepper. Cool this mixture to jelly-like consistency. Combine sour cream with cottage cheese, stirring until smooth. Add to gelatin mixture with celery, peas and chopped onion. Add turkey which has been drained. Pour into a one and one-half quart ring mold which has been oiled. Chill until firm, about one to one and one-half hours. Turn out onto large plate, tuck lettuce leaves around molded salad. Garnish with quartered hard-boiled eggs and stuffed olives. Serve with Sour Cream Dressing.

Motivation Stifled by Large Allowance That's Not Deserved

BY ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: We are middle-class people of modest means. My husband's take home pay is slightly under $118 a week. It is not easy to manage today on his salary. For fun, we own our home free and clear, and the company provides us with a car or we couldn't make it.

The problem is that my husband insists on giving our 14-year-old son $10 a week to spend on anything he wants. This does not include clothing, school supplies or tickets to sports events. I've told him this is not right, but he says, "Money gives people confidence. When I was a kid I was so ashamed of not having a nickel in my pocket I swore it would never happen to my son."

Last night I sat down with the boy and asked him to tell me what he had done with his week's allowance. Almost all of it was spent treating friends to sodas, sandwiches, hamburgers and movies. My husband says this is "generous." I say the boy is trying to buy popularity. May I hear what you have to say?

to say "Could I be wrong?" — Minority of One

Dear Minority: I hope you can get an outsider to talk to your husband before he ruins his son for life.

Teen-agers who are handed a large allowance just for breathing, grow up spoiled, lazy and with no motivation to achieve anything through work.

Your son is not making friends, he is supporting leeches. Please urge your husband to seek some professional help or he may wind up giving the boy money for the rest of his life.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am 22 and the only girl in our crowd who is not married. I pretend I am fussy but the truth of the matter is nobody has ever asked me — until Bennie. Bennie works as a waiter in a cafe where I am assistant cashier. He is 28, handsome, has been married twice but has no children. The big problem is that Bennie drinks too much and doesn't remember what he says.

Last weekend he said he had me to go see his sister in Martin's week's allowance. Almost all of it was spent treating friends to sodas, sandwiches, hamburgers and movies. My husband says this is "generous." I say the boy is trying to buy popularity. May I hear what you have to say?

Parents are people — they can be right and they can be wrong. To help understand their viewpoint and to promote harmony at home, write for Ann Landers' booklet "How To Live With Your Parents" enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

People have faith in Reader's Digest

Dear Dottie: Marriage never cured a drinking problem yet. If Bennie is looking for "kicks" I suggest you kick him in the direction of Alcoholics Anonymous. If he proves he can stay off the sauce for one solid year then you might risk marriage.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I don't care if you call me a lousy sport, a cheapskate or just plain dumb, but please tell me how to handle this.

Miss USA a Calm, Lovely Math Whiz From the East

BY KELLY SMITH

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The new Miss USA, a math whiz once serenaded by television star Ricky Nelson, competes tonight against beauties of 58 nations for the Miss Universe crown.

She is blue-eyed, blonde Bobbi Johnson, a stunning 19-year-old from Washington, D.C.

She probably is one of the calmest beauty winners on record. Eight thousand people watched her step smoothly from the line of 15 semifinalists and receive the Miss USA crown without a tear.

Bobbi's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Duane B. Johnson, kissed her backstage, told her she had had some "tough competition" then set about congratulating the runners-up.

Tall Diane Balloun, Houston, Texas, first runner-up Patricia Marlin, Fairbanks, Alaska, second, Janet Joy Erickson, Salt Lake City, third, and Johnna Ruth Reid, Paducah, Ky.

The winner's eye-catching dimensions, 35-22-35, are more than skin deep. Bobbi is a National Science Foundation scholar and attended the University of Kansas last year as an honors program mathematics major. She wants to program electronic computers.

"I love school. But taking this year out doesn't really bother me. I would much rather be doing this." She will spend a year traveling to promote the Miss Universe pageant.

"I didn't used to be superstitious about numbers, but I'm getting that way fast. My birthday is March 24th, my number in the Washington D.C. pageant was 24, and my number in this pageant is 24."

One of Bobbi's most talked about experiences is her serenade from Ricky Nelson, singing son of Ozzie and Harriet.

He crowned me Kansas City Auto Show Queen of 1963. He kissed me and he serenaded me," she said hesitantly. "He was very nice."

Sheinwold Judge Bad Play by Experience

What is a bad play? Your standards depend on the player as well as on the play. It is enough if the absolute beginner manages to follow suit, but you expect far more than this of the experienced player.

"This is not a simple hand for the average player to handle correctly," remarks Fred Karpin in his splendid new paperback "Winning Play in Contract Bridge," but our expert declarer should have fulfilled his contract.

Declarer took the first trick in dummy with the ace of hearts, ruffed a heart, and drew trumps with the king and queen. South then took the top clubs and gave up a club.

West naturally led a spade, and declarer had to lose two spade tricks to East. Down one, and since declarer was an expert we must scold him for making a bad play.

Where did South go wrong? Decide for yourself before you read on.

Dangerous Opponent

South should see that West is the dangerous opponent because a spade lead by West would give the defenders the chance to take two spade tricks. East is not dangerous because a spade lead by East would give dummy a trick.

For this reason declarer must develop the clubs without giving the lead to West. The only sure way to do this is to play a low heart from dummy at the first trick.

East's return doesn't matter, but suppose he returns a heart. South discards a club, thus completing the exchange. He gives up a heart trick but does not lose a club trick. What's more, the heart trick is given up to East — the safe opponent.

South draws trumps with the king and queen, then cashes the top clubs and ruffs a club. Dummy's last two clubs are good, and South gets to dummy with a trump to discard two spades on the good clubs.

East can hold declarer to eleven tricks only if he cashes

Headpiece Can be Made Of Large, Woven Leaves

BY CAPPY DICK
It's a lot of fun to make a headband or a hat of leaves. Use leaves that are rather large with enough flat area to permit you to do the weaving easily. Leaves of the maple the last leaf into the holes of the next leaf until you have created a band long enough to fit around your head. Weave the last stem through the two holes in the first leaf, thus completing the circle.

If you just want a wreath to wear on your head, this finishes the project. However, if you want to make a hat, continue as shown in Figure 3, making a strip of leaves that will extend over the top of your head after being fastened to the wreath at both sides. Add another strip crossing in the opposite direction. This will complete the hat.

Mort Sahl Takes Up 'Saber' on Broadway

Satirist Will Star in New Play by Lorraine Hansberry

BY WILLIAM GLOVER

NEW YORK (AP) — Satirist Mort Sahl is turning Broadway stage actor—reluctantly. "I don't want to be an actor," says the night club comedian, "but I think it's time to descend into the arena and take up a saber."

He regards the job lead role in "The Sign in Sidney Brustein's Window," as an extension of his career as a gadfly against communal complacency.

The play is by Lorraine Hansberry, who achieved notable success with "A Raisin in the Sun." It is scheduled to open in October. Social commentary is the playwright's theme again, but not primarily concerning race, as did her previous play.

"It's about the dilemma of this generation," Sahl says, "and there's a note of hope in it, which very little theater has."

Sahl, who's adept at slangy, free-association and sometimes sharp jabber, discloses a streak of sober anxiety in private conversation.

Of his public image he says: "I think the best thing a country can have is a social critic. Anybody can hide, and a satirist isn't worth his salt if he doesn't rock the boat."

"I'm critical of the American character because it's crucial. We are the model, and the rest of the world would be bankrupt if we don't lead."

This doesn't mean Sahl is in despair. "Am I an optimist? Oh yes, of course. I don't see how you can evade the responsibility. If you're a Godlike person, you're surely an optimist and if you're an atheist, you've especially got to make use of right now, because this is it."

What I want people to have is a reaction—reawaken their prejudice or whatever. I don't care if they agree with me. I want people to feel something, not just go out and stretch and yawn."

Getting back to his involvement in "The Sign in Sidney Brustein's Window," Sahl says it came about simply because director Carmen Capalbo sent him the script.

We didn't know each other but he thought I could do it," Sahl says. "I've got no desire to become a permanent actor, there are too many around. I don't want to say what a writer says. I want to say what I say. But in this particular play, I like what she says."

Miller to Open Campaign Aug. 7 In Pennsylvania

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Pennsylvania's 67 Republican William E. Miller will open his county chairmen, and with lead campaign for vice president Aug. 7 at Harrisburg, Pa., by invitation of Gov. William W. Scranton, the Republican National Committee said today.

Before going to Harrisburg, Scranton, defeated by Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona for here with Republican congressional leaders

East May be Key Arena in Goldwater, Johnson Struggle

President Picks Liberal Senator From Rhode Island as Keynote

BY JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson and GOP presidential nominee Barry Goldwater appear to be preparing to make the Eastern industrial states a prime battleground in the election campaign.

Johnson signaled his intentions with Wednesday's selection by the Democratic arrangements committee—at the President's suggestion—of liberal Sen. John O. Pastore of Rhode Island as keynote for the party's Atlantic City, N.J., convention which opens Aug. 24.

Goldwater told a news conference in announcing that Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania will be host at a GOP summit conference at Hershey, Pa., next month that he intends to campaign in the northeastern states.

Potential Power
"I don't buy the argument that we don't have potential power in New York State," he said.

Johnson's choice of Pastore, an exponent of the administration's advocacy of civil rights and social welfare legislation, to state the party's case seemed likely to jolt further the support for the President in the South.

The arrangements committee countered this by naming Gov. (Carl) Sanders of Georgia, who has predicted the Johnson ticket will carry his state, as chairman of the convention rules committee. This put a Southerner in a key spot.

The North Carolina Democratic senators, Sam J. Ervin Jr. and B. Everett Jordan, announced they planned to work for the Democratic national ticket.

Good Habit
Ervin said, "I long ago formed the good habit of voting for all Democratic nominees from president down to constable. I have always spoken for the Democratic ticket and I will certainly do that this year."

Jordan said, "I was elected as a Democrat and I'm not going to start picking and choosing on the ticket now. The people of North Carolina have a lot to be thankful to the Democratic party for."

Mr. Goldwater is against farm price supports, and, if these were knocked out, North Carolina would be in bad shape."

Pastore, who worked closely with Johnson when the latter was Democratic leader of the Senate, summed up his position this way: "I see eye-to-eye with the President on his program."

Goldwater's choice of Ohio State Chairman Ray Bliss and former national party chairman Leonard W. Hall, a New Yorker, as members of a steering committee that will map strategy tional Goldwater assurances, he will work only for the re-election of Sen. Kenneth B. Keating and other candidates on the state ticket.

In announcing plans for the committee, State Chairman Fred A. Young said at Albany the group would conduct "a full-scale campaign" for Goldwater.

Young said that Republicans "are realistic enough to realize we face an uphill fight, but the Goldwater-Miller ticket has a fighting chance in New York, and we refuse to be written off."

No Exchange
Keating said formation of the committee will not change his plans to conduct a campaign in the so-called "white backwash" against Negro demonstrations. He said he has no mind whether he will run against Goldwater on again but expects to have an announcement of his intentions before Sept. 1.

Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., another of the party moderates who fought Goldwater's nomination, said he is withholding any decision on whether he will support conference he is convinced after his meeting with Johnson last Friday that inflammatory talk on civil rights will be kept out of the campaign, so far as the nominees are concerned. He said he hopes others also will be careful what they say.

Javits said he will work with a New York GOP state campaign committee to be formed at an Aug. 6 meeting. But he said that unless he gets additional

Whirl Cookies

WHIRL COOKIES

(A Big Jo Pre-sifted Flour recipe)

2 squares (2 oz.) unsweetened chocolate, melted
3/4 cup Big Jo All-Purpose Flour
1/2 tsp. baking powder
1/2 cup shortening
1 cup sugar
1 egg
2 tsp. vanilla
1/2 cup soft butter
2 tsp. warm water

MELT... chocolate over boiling water. Set aside until ready to use.

SPOON... flour (not sifted) into dry measuring cup. Level off and pour measured flour onto waxed paper.

ADD... baking powder and salt to flour (not sifted) and stir to blend.

CREAM... sugar, butter, shortening, egg and vanilla thoroughly.

ADD... blended dry ingredients to creamed mixture. Mix well.

SPRINKLE... water over combined ingredients and stir to blend.

DIVIDE... dough in half. Add melted chocolate to one portion of the dough. Mix well.

ROLL OUT... each portion of dough, between waxed paper, into a 4x6-inch rectangle.

REMOVE... top sheet of waxed paper and place chocolate dough on top of vanilla dough. Cover with waxed paper and roll combined doughs to a rectangle 1/4 inch thick, or less if desired.

ROLL UP... lengthwise, jelly-roll fashion, guiding the roll with the waxed paper.

CHILL... rolled dough for 1 1/2-2 hours, until firm.

SLICE... with a sharp knife into 1/4-inch slices. Place on ungreased baking sheet.

BAKE... at 400° for 8-10 minutes.

YIELD... 8-9 dozen cookies.

Nobody's ever found a more popular flavor than chocolate. The rich chocolate flavor of these delightfully crisp Whirl Cookies, swirled with creamy vanilla, makes them a universal favorite. They'll be tastier, too, if you make them with Big Jo Flour.

For over 75 years Midwest home-makers have praised Big Jo as their secret of better baking. You will, too, once you've tried it. Big Jo Flour is pre-sifted, so you need never sift again for anything you bake. Buy Big Jo at your grocer's now!

Debates Critical Actions Of the 1960 Campaign

BY JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — The day after John F. Kennedy squeaked through to victory in the 1960 elections his brother and campaign manager, Robert F. Kennedy, said it couldn't have happened if Vice President Richard M. Nixon hadn't agreed to those four debates on nationwide television and radio.

The next day President-elect Kennedy said the same thing. A few months later the delegates to the Republican National Convention in 1960 were polled by the Indianapolis News which asked what they thought had caused Nixon's defeat. The consensus of 780 of the 1,331 delegates was that the big mistake was Nixon's debates with Kennedy.

Much later President Kennedy said he would debate his Republican opponent in 1964. But by then Kennedy had enormously built up his popular support. President Johnson in office only a little more than eight months is still trying to build up his

1960 Lesson
The lesson of 1960 can hardly be lost on Johnson, a man who figures the angles. Only this week it became known he is even change the course of history thinking of making few barnstorming trips in this year's campaign, explaining to his Cabinet how highly successful President Roosevelt was in the 1936 and 1940 elections when he tightly limited his electioneering. It's no wonder he hasn't responded yet to Sen. Barry Goldwater's challenge to debate in front of the nation or that his press secretary, George Reedy, told newsmen Wednesday such a debate is not a matter the Democrats would consider until the campaign begins next September. At the time of the 1960 debates Nixon, by the fact of his office and televised news conferences had been in the public eye seven years and was a national figure while Kennedy, except for such exposure as he got in the 1960 primary contests, was a relatively unknown senator from Massachusetts.

Four Debates
The four debates, with an audience of perhaps 70 million people watching each time, gave Kennedy an audience he couldn't otherwise have reached no matter how hard he campaigned. And Nixon, by an accident of wrong make-up and lighting, got off on the wrong foot in the very first debate. Besides the four so-called debates were not debates on the issues. The liveliest was the Quoniam Matsu question. Instead of discussing issue, the two men were stating positions and by the fourth debate were repeating themselves.

Last January Goldwater said if he was president he wouldn't debate a candidate running against him. He said, "Why buy his audience? Let him get his own." And he added, "I think it's kind of dangerous to subject a president of the United States to questioning and debate."

After all this is the most responsible job in the world and he might just slip and say something inadvertently that could get him into a little hot water. He said he thinks Johnson will eventually agree to debate him. But Johnson has an audience all his own. Simply because he's president he can stay in the public eye daily through the campaign with pronouncements and televised news conferences. Goldwater can't match that, no matter how much money he spends.

$46 Billion Defense Bill Has Unanimous Approval in Senate

Efforts to Reduce Funds,
Save Shipyards Defeated

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has passed the $46 billion defense bill, which includes a 10 percent increase in military spending, by a 92-0 vote.

The 76-0 approval Wednesday night of the biggest money bill of the fiscal year — $46,774,401,000 — sends the appropriation to the House, which earlier voted to prevent a shutdown of any yards unless appropriate House acts, a committee of both chambers will arrange a compromise figure.

The Senate amount is $14 billion less than Congress forked over to the Pentagon last year and more than $600 million below President Johnson's initial budget requests.

Angry Debate
The unanimous vote is misleading in a sense. Debate was angry at times and Russell, floor manager for the bill, had to fight off efforts to cut the amount and to protect government shipyards. After nine hours the veteran Georgia Democrat had his way on every test.

Russell claimed huge multi-billion-dollar outlays for man-powered, missiles, submarines and other extensive military hardware must continue for the foreseeable future.

Many Bases Closed
Most of the dispute centered on efforts of Navy yard supporters to get a large share of nearly $2 billion in the bill to construct, repair and convert the

House Approves Increase In Social Security Benefits

Administration Leaders
In Senate Will Fight for Health Care Provisions

BY EDMOND LEBRETON

WASHINGTON (AP) — A House-passed bill to increase Social Security benefits headed today into a Senate fight to add it to controversial health care provisions.

The House passed the measure Wednesday 208 to 8 without the hospitalization features for which President Johnson and the late President John F. Kennedy had pleaded.

The measure as it stands would give a 5 per cent raise to the 20 million Social Security retirees and admit more than half a million more persons to the rolls.

Here are a few examples of the proposed increases:

A retired worker now getting $40 monthly would get $42 one now getting $105 would get $110.30 and one now getting $127 would get $133.40.

A man and his wife now getting $80 would get $83, a couple getting $137.50 would get $144.37 and a couple now getting $190.50 would get $200.10.

Senators Plan Changes
Senate supporters of the administration plan, however, were already at work on amendments to write into the measure a cut-down version of the hospitalization provision possibly as a voluntary option for some or all of the cash increases provided.

The proposals have not been put in final form. Similar moves earlier this year by the House supporters were abandoned in the face of certain defeat by the Ways and Means Committee.

Any such provisions are sure to meet stiff opposition and might block final passage of the bill this year, especially since Congress is driving to adjourn before the Democratic National Convention begins Aug. 24.

Ribicoff Leads Drive
The Senate campaign to add hospitalization for persons 65 or older probably would be led at first by Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn., who fought for the plan as secretary of health education and welfare in the Kennedy Cabinet.

Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., co-author of the hospitalization proposal, is recuperating from an operation and is not expected back in the Senate for about two weeks.

The Senate Finance Committee has scheduled a closed meeting Tuesday to discuss handling of the bill. Chairman Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., is understood to be ready to insist on extensive hearings if administration supporters move to have the committee go into the health care matter.

As passed by the House, the bill would increase Social Security payments about $625 million annually by setting a new scale.

Outlook for Moon Photos Grows Brighter

Scientists Think
Space Cameras Have
80 Per Cent Chance

PASADENA Calif. (AP) — Scientists watched with growing elation today as Ranger 7 sailed peacefully through space with a cargo of cameras now given an 80 per cent chance of snapping history's first closeups of the moon.

Radioed information indicated all instruments aboard the 600-pound vehicle were in normal condition, including the television system designed to go into action just before impact at 8:25 a.m. Eastern Standard Time Friday.

There was no threat so far of the technical troubles that foiled six previous Ranger shots.

Past Worst Hurdles
Dr. William H. Pickering, director of the Jet Propulsion Laboratory which made and is guiding Ranger 7 on its 228,000-mile voyage, says the moon-shaped spacecraft has passed the worst of its hurdles and has a four-out-of-five chance of success.

He upped the odds from 50-50 Wednesday after a minor trajectory adjustment 100,000 miles out in space aimed Ranger 7 at a 50-300 mile area in the Sea of Clouds, just southwest of the center of the moon.

Ranger 7 now is cruising while scientists determine whether one final correction must be made before the space craft plunges into the moon at 5,800 miles an hour.

Cameras Position
Six cameras peering out a hole in the side of its cone-shaped body, must be pointed straight down when they begin snapping 4,000 pictures in the final 13 minutes of flight.

If the craft is in proper position no correction will be made. Otherwise tiny jets will be sent a signal one hour before impact to roll the craft around in space until the right photographic angle is achieved.

Brazilian Cold Wave Fatal to 19 Beggars

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP) — Nineteen street beggars have died from exposure in this commercial metropolis on the edge of the tropics since a midwinter cold wave began Monday. Temperatures dropped to 40 degrees.

The legislation, which now is awaiting action by the House of Representatives, would reduce quotas on imports of beef.

Curb on Demonstrations Opposed in Some Cities

Australia Irked By Senate Vote on Meat Agreement

CANBERRA, Australia (AP) — Australia has sent a stiff note to the U.S. government on the Senate's approval of legislation repudiating the Australian-American meat agreement.

Informed sources said the note pointed out that cancellation of the agreement would have a potentially serious effect on relations between the United States and Australia.

The sources said the note also reminded the U.S. administration that negotiations on agricultural trade were an integral part of the Kennedy round of talks in Geneva and abrogation of the meat agreement could have widespread repercussions on the success of those negotiations.

The legislation, which now is awaiting action by the House of Representatives, would reduce quotas on imports of beef.

'States Rights Platform' of Republicans Under Attack

NEW YORK (AP) — Civil rights leaders in some cities expressed reservations about a call by Negro leaders for an end to most if not all mass demonstrations in the nation until after Election Day.

The national leaders were critical of what they called the states rights platform adopted by the Republican convention that nominated Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater for president.

Their statement, issued Wednesday night after a summit meeting, said "We believe that racism has been injected into the campaign by the Goldwater forces."

Urging a shift in tactics they called for a broad curtailment, if not total moratorium, of all mass marches, mass picketing and mass demonstrations until after Election Day, and more emphasis on getting more Negroes registered to vote.

Not Endorsing Johnson
Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, took pains to make it clear that the summit statement should not be interpreted as an endorsement of President Johnson's candidacy.

He also said in answer to a question that the action had not been taken in order to reduce the so-called "white backlash" described as the resentment of whites reacting to mass demonstrations by Negroes.

A spot check by The Associated Press indicated that several civil rights leaders on the local level intend to go ahead with demonstrations when they feel they are required to get results.

Jesse Gray, leader of the Harlem rent strikes, said "We'll continue to have demonstrations in Harlem in spite of what Wilkins says."

Gray's Community Council on Civil Rights said it would continue to have demonstrations in Harlem in spite of what Wilkins says.

Charge From Stockade
The Lumpas were reported to have charged from their stockade against the troops after rejecting a call to come out peacefully. The village was Kaomo which they had renamed Some in an approximation of the biblical Zion.

A search revealed Prophetess Alice, a matronly woman in her 40s, had disappeared perhaps fleeing into the Rhodesian copper mining region. A hunt was instituted for this leading figure in the holy war.

Terrified refugees said Lumpas warriors speared 50 African men to death in two neighboring villages earlier this week, then drove 150 women and children into grass huts and burned them alive. The villages were Chipwata and Etimabundo.

Some 1,000 Africans fled to the mission station at Mulanga 50 miles away, seeking protection Wednesday.

Previously the government had reported 41 dead in recent disorders including 300 Lumpas and 3 policemen.

Peking Refuses Conference Bid

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China told the Soviet Union today it will never take part in any international meeting that will split the international Communist movement.

The Chinese Communists are firmly opposed to a schismatic meeting convened by leaders of the Soviet Communist party, the Chinese declared.

Peking's refusal to attend a showdown meeting of the world's Communist parties was contained in a letter dated July 28 from the Central Committee of the Chinese Communist party to the Soviet Communist party.

Contents of the letter were broadcast by the New China News Agency.

Outing Ends in Tragedy
3 Children Jump From Boat Despite Warnings

FAIR HAVEN, Mich. (AP) — Mother's Club, which had provided 14 adults as escorts and swimming outing in the Anchor Bay area of Lake St. Clair, drowned Wednesday when they leaped gleefully from a cabin cruiser despite warnings.

A fourth child was saved. None of the victims could swim.

The victims Enrique Burgos, 8, his brother John, 6, and Raphael Aquino, 11, were among 43 youngsters from Holy Trinity church in Detroit.

No one was to blame, said Msgr. Clement H. Hern, pastor of the church. It was just one of those terrible accidents that happen.

The group had been invited for an outing by the Anchor Bay Lions Club and the New Ball's more Civic Club.

This was an especially happy outing, said Lucy Zaritz, president of the Holy Trinity.

But the boys slipped off

Isle Royale Site of Oshkosh Dig Camp

Post-Crescent's Charles House
To Record Work of Expedition

OSHKOSH—The Oshkosh Public Museum will conduct a three-purpose scientific expedition to Isle Royale, an island on Lake Superior, which contains hundreds of ancient copper mines worked by an unknown prehistoric people.

The expedition consisting of nine members including Post-Crescent Staff Writer Charles House, will live in a tent camp at McCargo Cove about 13 miles from the Canadian shoreline.

The prehistoric copper mines date to a period before Christ according to Museum Director John Kuony. Though there have been previous scientific studies of the works there, anthropologists have not been able to determine the identity of the ancient peoples.

"Our job," said Kuony, "is to find out."

Wolf and Moose
The expedition also seeks to study the wolf-moose population on the island which is volcanic in origin and which is some 45 miles in length.

Years ago the island was known to have wolves, moose and caribou but these were killed off by hunting pressure.

More recently there has been an attempt to re-establish a moose population but the herd did not flourish because of a large number of weaklings, runts and cripples. Some 10 years ago under the direction of the Wisconsin Conservation Department a pack of wolves was released for the purpose of keeping down the weaklings of the herd and to improve it on a survival of the fittest basis.

The imported wolves were taken from zoos and parks and elsewhere and released on an experimental basis. Though it required an unexpectedly long time for the "civilized" wolves to revert to their wild state, they now have done so adequately. Their attacks on the moose herd have apparently culled out the misfits and both wolf pack and moose herd are in a thriving condition.

The Oshkosh Museum's purpose in the wolf-moose study will seek to make valuable findings on the result of the experiment to date.

Sunken Ships
Another element in the purpose of the 10-day expedition will be to seek out and dive on approximately a dozen sunken ships in the region of the island. Members will dive over and search vessels which have

All-Night Session by House of Commons

LONDON (AP) — The House of Commons sat all night for its longest session of this Parliament. The session lasted 18 hours and 26 minutes, four minutes short of the longest sitting in the past 10 years. Only 12 members were still in the House when it adjourned at 8:40 a.m.

The debate officially was on what to do with public funds set up by George III in 1787. By tradition it is the one occasion when members can talk on any subject they wish.

Sen. Engle Dies In Washington

California Governor
May Name Salingor
To Fill Vacancy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Clair Engle, D-Calif., 52, forced by illness to abandon a fight for re-election, died early today at his home here.

There was speculation that

Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California would name former White House press secretary Pierre Salinger to fill out the remainder of Engle's term.

Salingor won a hot primary battle from State Controller Alan Cranston last June 2 for the Democratic nomination to the Senate.

Withdraw From Race
Despite a brain operation last summer, Engle had announced plans to run for re-election early this year.

But he withdrew after a dramatic episode in the Senate April 13 in which he tried to introduce a resolution and couldn't speak.

Aides privately had arranged

Brillion Boy First Affected By New Law

CHILTON — A Brillion youth became the first traffic violator to be sentenced under a new state teenage law Monday in Calumet County Court. John P. Lindner, 17, 423 Columbia Ave., Brillion, had his driver license suspended for 30 days for speeding with the stipu- lation that he would be permit- ted to drive his father's milk truck. Calumet County Judge D. H. Sebra said the state law passed in June permits justices to re- voke, suspend and restrict the driving privileges of young drivers. Previous to the passing of the law judges had no alterna- tive but to revoke or suspend with no restrictions. Judge Sebra said the new law allows an "ambitious youngster to hold a job which requires driving even though his license has been restricted.

"The Boy Friend" Steps Stage Center

The French Riviera of the 1920s will be the setting when the curtain goes up at 8:15 p.m. today, Friday and Saturday at Kaukauna High School. "The Boy Friend" is the production chosen for the second annual Kaukauna High School summer musical. Mrs. Gene Ploetz and Miss Karen Krumm are co-directors of the musical comedy spoof.

Cast members are Lynn Cherkasky, Kirk Weber, Ricki VanderVelden, Carol Schroeder, Gail School, Luann Schmalz, Jim Lindell, Scott Bay, Joe Elting, John Reinko, Mary May, Bob Main, Sue Vils, Greg Dery, Kristi DeBruin and Herb Gosdick.

Performing as members of the chorus will be Midge

Voet, Kristi Ludtke, Melanie Rose, Kay VanZimmeren and Jean Schmidt. Dancing roles have gone to Betty Van Dyke, Caroline Brenzel, Sheri O'Dell, Jill Robin, Tom Vandenberg, Jim Niesen and Art Lamers.

Miss Donna Borchardt is accompanist. Assisting as student directors are Kathy Bamberg and Linda Plutchak.

The play, which makes use of all the delightful props of life in the 20s, was a hit in both London and on Broadway. Costumes are composed of straw hats and blazers, knickers, long, long necklaces, flouncy skirts and dropped waists, combined in a razz-dazz presentation that promises fun for children and their parents.

An Attempt to Get Percival into the water for a swim makes hilarious moments in the summer musical comedy. The pawn in the game is Bob Main, tugged at from all sides by Mary May, Gail School and Luann Schmalz. Below, Lord Brockhurst engages in a bit of harmless fun while his wife stands horrified in the background. The characters are portrayed by Carol Schroeder, Greg Dery and Kristi DeBruin. A Charleston number brings back the 20s in a wild and wonderful way when Jim Lindell and Ricki VanderVelden, above, do the dance during a scene from "The Boy Friend," to open at 8:15 a.m. today at Kaukauna High School. At left, Jim, kneeling, begs Ricki to be his dancing partner as Sherry O'Dell and Joe Elting sit one out. At right, the French maid, played by Sue Vils, reacts to Lynn Cherkasky and Kirk Weber.

The Kickback Catches Hoffa

The "kickback" did just that for Teamster Union Boss James Hoffa. He was convicted of conspiring to siphon away some $25 million of the union's pension fund through fraudulent loan applications and for his own pocketbook.

The deals naturally were very involved in an attempt to escape detection. Apparently the master mind in the scheme was not Hoffa, but Benjamin Dranow, a Minneapolis department store owner now serving prison terms for fraud, income tax evasion and bond jumping. Along with Hoffa and four others, Dranow was convicted of the conspiracy which primarily involved the Sun Valley Development Corporation, a Florida land organization.

The union funds were illegally acquired through application for loans "by means of false and fraudulent pretenses," according to the government indictment which further charged that Hoffa secretly owned 45 per cent of Sun Valley. Hoffa then used his influence on the union fund trustees to get the loans. The recipients of the loans kicked back money for Hoffa and the others, according to the charges of which they were convicted.

Whether or not Hoffa has been the target of a personal vendetta conducted by Attorney General Robert Kennedy hardly seems to be important any more. Hoffa is currently appealing another conviction this time for the distasteful matter of attempting to fix a federal court jury. And the background information of threats, intrigue and efforts to use power for something less than good reasons indicates that it is well that the government has finally caught up with the Teamster boss.

The New Rubbish Collection Program

Starting Monday, residents of Appleton can look forward to an accelerated rubbish collection program being put into effect by the Sanitation Division of the Department of Public Works.

Under the new policy, approved recently by the Common Council after months of deliberation, residential rubbish will be collected once every two weeks from each household.

Notices outlining collection rules and schedules are being distributed this week to all Appleton households. If you have not received your schedule by the end of the week, contact the Sanitation Division.

The shift from once-a-month to bi-weekly rubbish collections is likely to pose some problems at the outset. There will be new collection routes and crews assigned to the residential areas in the city.

However, Public Works Department officials hope to have "bugs" eliminated as soon as possible and have called upon residents for cooperation and patience during the transitional period. Existing garbage collection schedules may be slightly modified in some cases with a minimum of inconvenience to the householder.

The best thing to do is to take a good look at your new rubbish collection schedule. Then if there are any questions, contact city officials.

The added collection service has been long overdue in Appleton.

Can She Bake a Cherry Pie?

About thirty million pounds of sour red cherries are in the process of being harvested in Door County. But the big harvest is a mixed blessing to cherry growers since the price goes down as the volume goes up. In some cases, the amount expected to be received from the cherries isn't enough to pay the costs of picking and packing.

The bright red cherries have been one of Door County's trademarks for years but the market for the fruit is limited. A meeting of growers with state experts last week brought out the fact that many of the orchards are operating inefficiently as far as the number of pounds of cherries per tree is concerned. Experiments have shown that with proper care, trees and therefore acreage can give a much greater yield than the present average. Newly developed automatic equipment, including mechanical pickers, can also contribute to more efficient operations in the future.

But a major problem for cherry growers is marketing. In recent years there have been greater efforts made to promote the fruit in Door County itself through the sales of cherry juice at roadside stands and the serving of cherry pie at many restaurants. So far however, the number of uses for the cherries is limited.

Door County growers have been doing remarkable things with the strawberry, however. Once limited to a few weeks in June, Door County strawberries are now available for most of the summer and a few varieties can be had even in the fall. Research into what kinds would grow where and how, improved methods of cultivation and irrigation combined with active marketing at roadside stands, have meant the growth and success of this industry. But it was pointed out at the meeting that Door County apples, some of them among the best in the nation, are not yet being marketed with the zest they deserve.

The cherries may never reach the popularity of strawberries or apples but there is one way in which their sales could be improved. There is probably no more satisfying dessert than a good cherry pie, served with a slice of aged cheese. But too many cherry pie-makers in Door County are doing a disservice to the product as well as to their customers by adding tapioca or custard to the filling or turning out an indifferent crust. If old-fashioned pie-making becomes a lost art in these days of packaged mixes, Door County's red cherries are in for a doubtful future.

Lesson From Sports

The problem makers in race relations during this long hot summer should have taken time off from their rock throwing and club wielding to watch the United States-Soviet Union track and field meet held in Los Angeles last weekend.

For the first time the Americans beat the Russians in total points. The American men finished far ahead. The American women lost to the Russian women but only by a narrow margin. There were several unexpected winners among the Americans particularly since some of our best were not competing because of illness or injury.

The Americans won this year because of athletic ability and determined individual effort. But they also won because of their cooperation. One runner paced another in a move clearly practiced beforehand to take advantage of personal strength and individual Russian weaknesses. And no one bothered to ask whether any man or woman was black or white.

The young men and women who took part in the track meet are far too busy disciplining themselves to the rigors of strenuous athletic competition to notice whether a man at the next counter is black or the policeman on the corner is white. They triumphed for their country is what we like to think is an American way, honestly, through hard work and self-sacrifice and without prejudice.

Error in School Board Story Gladly Corrected

Editor, Post-Crescent:

Kenneth Sager, chairman of the Appleton Board of Education Committee, appointed to recommend names for the proposed southeast senior high school, is out of town and is, therefore, unable to be our spokesman. Without awaiting the delay of his return, we, both members of this committee, wish to have corrected a mistake that appeared in the Post-Crescent article entitled, "Board Split on Names for High School," Section B1, Tuesday, July 28.

A paragraph in the report reads: "Ken Sager, chairman of the committee, read the report. He and Mrs. Helen Heil had agreed on the Post-Appleton combination, but Dr. Roy Whitney recommended the name of John P. Kennedy Senior High School for the proposed school or the naming of both schools along geographic divisions."

It is true that a compromise was reached in committee action, and the majority opinion favored recommending Robert Frost as the name for the new school and Samuel Appleton for the present senior high school. However, the minority opinions were: "Mrs. Heil's in supporting the name of John F. Kennedy for the proposed senior high school, and Dr. Whitney's in advocating the geographic designations for both schools."

In the interests of accuracy, we sincerely hope that you will see fit to publish this correction.

Johnson Sounding Out Advisors On Choice for Vice President

BY ROBERT S. ALLEN AND PAUL SCOTT

With the Democratic convention less than a month off, the President has personally started taking soundings on his possible running mate.

This highly significant first-hand polling is being done in two ways — in carefully unannounced White House talks, and in telephone calls to trusted party and other leaders in key states and voting areas throughout the country, including the South.

In discussing this fateful question with selected White House callers, the President's usual procedure is as follows:

He explains he would like to get the visitor's frank private opinion of a vice presidential choice. Then the President hands the caller a typewritten list of six names, and asks what he thinks about any one of them in particular or all of them.

The names on the list in alphabetical order are:

Assistant Senate Democratic Leader Hubert Humphrey
Attorney General Robert Kennedy
Senator Eugene McCarthy, Minn.

Defense Secretary Robert McNamara
Peacetime Corps (and anti-poverty) Director Sargent Shriver
U.N. Ambassador Adlai Stevenson
If the caller indicates a special preference, the President listens closely and then also warmly lauds him. But in doing so, he very carefully gives no clue as to what he himself thinks about the proposed selection's "availability."

For example, the President will say, "There is no question he is outstandingly able and qualified. Certainly, the convention couldn't go wrong in nominating him."

Throughout these soundings, the President has yet to give any hint as to whom he favors on this apparent preferential list of six.

STILL OTHER PROSPECTS

Lately, there has been an important addition to the procedure in these White House talks.

After the visitor has expressed himself on the six names on the typewritten list, the President has said, "While you're at it, there are a few other first-class possibilities on whom I'd like to get your judgment."

With that, the President has mentioned four names — Senators Thomas Dodd, Conn.; Edmund Muskie, Me.; Abraham Ribicoff, Conn., and New Jersey's Governor Richard Hughes.

Dodd, one-time FBI man; Muskie, of Polish descent and former governor, and Hughes are Catholics. Ribicoff, Jewish, was HEW Secretary in the original cabinet of the late President Kennedy, whom he strongly supported for the 1960 nomination against Johnson.

To the visitors, Muskie's name is no surprise as he has been mentioned as a vice presidential prospect. But Dodd, Hughes and Ribicoff are causing considerable buzzing in inner Democratic circles.

The President's soundings on them are directly attributed to the make-up of the Republican ticket. Senator Goldwater is part Jewish; Representative Miller is Catholic.

Chicago's Mayor Richard Daley and Frank Smith, Philadelphia Democratic leader, have told the President they are flatly against Defense Secretary McNamara as the vice presidential choice. Shortly before Daley's visit to the White House, three important Cook County labor chiefs told him they were strenuously opposed to McNamara; that if he was on Johnson's ticket they would "sit out the election."

Daley conveyed that blunt word to the President.

IN A STEW — Democratic National Chairman John Bailey is on a sizzling hot spot — and so far has found no help in getting off of it.

Leaders of the newly-formed so-called "Freedom Democratic Party" in Mississippi have asked Bailey to attend their state convention in Jackson early next month. They want him to give a talk and to advise them on the selection of a delegation to challenge the regular Democratic delegation to the national convention.

Bailey asked the advice of Clifton Carter, close political confidant of the President, but to no avail. Carter referred Bailey to the White House, which has remained silent on the explosive matter.

But congressional leaders to whom Bailey has appealed have been unanimous in urging him to turn down the Mississippi insurgents. The lawmakers have counseled ignoring them.

Meanwhile, Joseph Rauh, general counsel of the United Auto Workers and boss of the District of Columbia Democratic organization, is drafting a brief for the "Freedom Party" delegation to submit to the convention's Credentials Committee. This document will argue that the regular delegation should be ousted on he ground it will not support either national ticket or platform.

Rauh claims the insurgents already have enough backing to formally challenge the regular delegation on the convention floor if the Credentials Committee, as is expected, rejects the ouster demand.

CONVENTION FLASHES — Definitely slated to be key-note at the Atlantic City convention is Senator John Pastore, R-I. The President made this backstage decision on the recommendation of a number of key advisers, foremost among them Senator Hubert Humphrey, Minn. A Catholic of Italian descent, Pastore is a peppery speaker with a powerful voice and dynamism. A major factor in his selection was his presumed appeal to ethnic voter groups.

Still up in the air is when to hold memorial services for the late President Kennedy. Initially, the plan was to devote the first day's session to him. But a number of party leaders warned that might play into Attorney General Robert Kennedy's hands in mounting an unstoppable boom for vice president. As an alternate, the last day of the convention was then proposed. But the President objected to that because he didn't want the convention to close on a "funereal note." While the problem is still being deliberated, it has been decided to not only memorialize Kennedy but also Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and Speaker Sam Rayburn.

Former President Truman will deliver one of his sizzling partisan speeches at the convention. He is also slated for an active role in the fall campaign, particularly in the Middle West, where he is considered to have influence, especially with farmers.

The allocation of housing at the Democratic convention is in a big mess. Neither delegates nor the press have yet any word as to their hotel reservations — in striking contrast to the Republican National Committee's handling of this problem. By the time for their convention, hotel assignments had been made. But so far no one has positive word from the Democratic Committee. The woman first in charge of this difficult chore finally gave up in despair and went back to Texas. Now a lawyer from that state, an old friend of the President, is grappling with it, but so far without tangible results.

There's No Doubt That Goldwater Choice Of Most of State GOP

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON — Democrats are diligently keeping alive what they claim is a legitimate doubt that Sen. Barry Goldwater was the choice of the representative Republicans of Wisconsin as decided by the state Republican delegation to the San Francisco party convention.

Wyngaard

The charge may have a certain irrelevance, given the patently partisan purposes of such critics and the recorded fact that they are now thumping for the re-election of a man whose candidacy for their presidential nomination they publicly scorned only three years ago. But it is worth examination, nevertheless.

One of the difficulties in assessing the matter is the fact that the tests of preference of the Wisconsin voter are clumsy and uncertain at best. For one thing, the history of Wisconsin elections shows abundantly that Democrats tend to come into Republican presidential primaries to dilute or distort the wishes of the regular Republican voters.

But if it is assumed that Sen. Goldwater had filed as a candidate in the Wisconsin primary election last spring, would he have won the delegate support that he was given at San Francisco when Rep. Byrnes released the delegates nominally pledged to him.

PROBABLY

It seems fair to say, with the advantage of a hindsight view of events, that he would have won a majority of the Wisconsin 30 vote delegation.

When the time for filing in the Wisconsin primary arrived in late winter, Sen. Goldwater's major and only important rival for the ticket leadership of his party was Gov. Rockefeller of New York. Putting aside the fact that the governor never showed any real desire to enter the Wisconsin primary and that he consented willingly enough to the compact with Goldwater to detour Wisconsin in deference to the favorite son device, there is nothing to show that he would have performed better here than in some of the other primaries where his ardent hopes were smashed. His marital record turned out to be an insuperable obstacle. If it is assumed that the Wisconsin Republican voter tends to be somewhat more conservative in his views than those of New Hampshire and Oregon, to cite two relevant examples, he probably would have run less well against Goldwater here.

As the convention turned out, the main challenge to Goldwater came from Gov. Scranton, tardy and ill-managed as it was. But Gov. Scranton was telling all and sundry at the time of the Wisconsin filing deadline that he was not a candidate and would not be a candidate. His reluctant decision later was to fill the vacuum created by the failure of Rockefeller and Lodge. Nor would Lodge, taking his statements at their face value, have figured in a Wisconsin vote test.

NOT UNANIMOUS

The record of Wisconsin participation in the 1964 Republican nomination must also show, in an objective historical account, that the Wisconsin delegation at San Francisco was not unanimously favorable to Goldwater when Rep. Byrnes announced his delegation's release after three days of reflection including personal consultations with the candidates. The vote was 26 to 4 on the first straw ballot. It seemed likely to this correspondent at least, as he talked with delegates at the scene, that the minority might have been fattened a little if there had been any confidence in the seriousness of Scranton as a candidate or his prospects.

The decision to cast a unanimous ballot for Goldwater was taken because even the doubters agreed that the Scranton campaign was hopeless and in the interests of a Wisconsin party campaign for the governorship and other important offices of maximum unity and effectiveness. That such a conclusion harmonized with the consensus of Republican rank and file opinion in Wisconsin is a reasonable deduction from the circumstances.

Ability to Laugh at Oneself Useful Trait

BY SYDNEY J. HARRIS

Purely Personal Prejudices: Too many builders seem to think that merely doubling the of coffee gives you a glass of iced tea so filled to the brim that merely dropping in the lemon causes it to overflow?

Most over-rated book of the season: "The Spire" by William Golding, which I was not able to finish despite my admiration for his technical skill and sympathy for his subject.

No trait is more useful in life than the ability to laugh at our own defects, as Lincoln was able to make fun of his homeliness, when during a debate Douglas accused him of being "two-faced"; without hesitation, Lincoln calmly replied, "I leave it to my audience — if I had two faces, would I be wearing this one?"

There is only one effective way to reduce juvenile crime, and that is to reduce juvenile boredom; delinquency in depressed neighborhoods comes not so much from a desire for money as from a need for entertainment and excitement which it seems (erroneously) only money can buy.

One can tell more about a person from the way he laughs than from any other mannerism; as Goncourt said, "Laughter is the mind's intonation — there are ways of laughing which have the sound of counterfeit coin."

Fictionalized accounts of "brilliant" criminals are the most dangerous nonsense that can be put into young people's heads: most criminals are caught because of their own stupidity rather than the cunning of police.

The futility of human endeavor is nowhere more distressingly exposed than in the grim and leathery faces of the sun-worshippers who spend three months doggedly acquiring a tan that will disappear in two weeks.

To my mind, the topos bathing suit for women is a refreshing piece of anatomical honesty compared with the coy peek-a-boo tops on so many feminine swim suits.

Much of the clutter in streets and alleys early in the morning is needless; and comes, I am convinced, from workmen who resent having had to get up so much earlier than the generality of householders.

The fittest fate for a man who petulantly refuses to grow up is to be married to a woman who bitterly refuses to grow old.

It is my strong impression, after thousands of miles of driving on interstate highways, that bus drivers violate the speed laws much more frequently and flagrantly than do drivers of passenger cars; and one reason their accident rate is low is that everyone scurries to get out of their way.

The other contestants whose recipes made them weekly winners and thus eligible for the cook-off were last year's finalist Mrs. Paul Rohloff, Appleton, and Mrs. Joseph G. Versteegen, Little Chute.

One of the most interesting facets of the month-long contest was the popularity of gelatin salads. Most of the recipes entered in the competition used gelatin in one form or another. Each of the weekly prizewinners is an excellent example of how either unflavored gelatin or the flavored prepared variety can be combined with fruits, cheeses, poultry and vegetables for some very fine eating.

Elm Tree Using New Bulk Flour Bin System

First Non-Silo Operation in Area

Used at Bakery's College Avenue Plant

Elm Tree Bakery has announced the activation of a new bulk flour handling system in this area. The system was delivered by the Bay State Milling Company of Winona, Minn., a long time supplier of flour to Elm Tree. Present from Bay State for

The system features the latest refinements in moving pulverized ingredients from bin to mixers pneumatically. The initial unloading were Tom Cavanaugh, regional sales manager and a former Appletonian, and Carl Weimar, sales representative for this area.

The concept of moving flour by forced air is not new to the baking industry, but this particular installation is unique in that it has horizontal type bins rather than the conventional silos used generally by bakery wholesalers.

An addition on the west side of the existing Elm Tree building erected in 1936 was needed to house the new flour facility. This addition is approximately 40-feet long and 38-feet wide.

A ruling that office machine demonstrations in the Outagamie County courthouse be approved by the county's purchasing committee will be strictly enforced in the future, the committee has ruled this week.

The committee is sending a reminder to courthouse department heads that demonstrations of office equipment have been being made aware of the fact that office equipment has been demonstrated in various offices without approval. In the letter to department heads the committee has stated that failure to obtain such permission may result in the committee refusing to approve the department's requested purchase.

It is no legend that the great early botanist, Sprengel, used the wild geranium to discover that there is a relationship be-

Notice the wild geranium droop and close during rainy days to protect their nectar from dilution. Notice too that there is a wooly tuft at the base of each petal to keep drops of water out of the treasured nectar which is just beneath the tuft.

Penicillin Shouldn't Be Used Promiscuously

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D. there More sophisticated tests Dear Dr. Molner At 18 can be made but for practical months my daughter had an in- purposes this one gives a very jection of penicillin, and in a good idea few days her legs and feet were very swollen

Is there any sure test to prove that she is allergic to this drug? Also I understand that this drug is in measles vaccine. Should she have it?— Mrs. R. A. B.

As to the baby described in today's letter the signs are highly suspicious of penicillin sensitivity

Measles vaccine does not contain penicillin it has dilute amounts of another antibiotic, neomycin, and she could not necessarily be sensitive to that. The problem should be discussed with the little girl's doctor

Dear Dr. Molner My nine-year-old son loves to smell gasoline and has been doing it for several years. We have spanked him and tried to talk to him but this does no good.

We live on a farm and it is hard to keep gasoline out of his reach as he will smell it from the tractor or other places where he knows it is

I took him to a clinic two years ago and had them check him over I asked if he could be lacking anything in his body, but they said no

We have even wondered if he needs psychiatric help — Mrs. P. W.

I know of no explanation for gasoline sniffing, but it keeps occurring with some other children too

Apparently it is just a quirk that becomes a habit For some reason some of them like the pungent smell There is no indication that it indicates any deficiency in diet or anything of the sort Neither is it a psychiatric matter, so far as I can learn

But it can be dangerous for the child so it ought to be stopped If spanking and talking haven't done it further pressure on the boy probably will do nothing but make him more determined to continue — forbidden fruits are the sweetest you know

My suggestion is to rig (or buy) some sort of a lock for gasoline tanks on the farm, only you and your husband having keys The boy may sniff at the locked tanks but he won't be able to inhale any strong volume of the fumes And, of course take care never to leave any gasoline in cans Keep it out of his reach

Dear Dr. Molner I have been told that if I continue to have my hair bleached this will steadily decrease my eye sight I have worn glasses for 11 years Is this true? — Miss R.

This is one of the newer "old wives tales" that have been conjured up out of sheer ignorance No bleaching your hair won't affect your eyesight (Copyright, 1964)

Family Reunion
HORTONVILLE — Mr. and Mrs. Lester Spaulding, Black Creek and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Spaulding Hortonville were in charge of arrangements for the Spaulding family reunion in Commercial Club Park Sunday Forty members attended the pot luck dinner and supper from Appleton, Black Creek, Bonduel, Dale, Fremont, Nichols, Oneida, Seymour, Shoceton, and Hortonville

This is a gratifying letter to receive because it shows that some people are aware penicillin may cause an allergic reaction

Most of the time the drug doesn't, of course Just as the majority of us do not have hay fever But some of us do

I hope we are past the time when people demand "a shot of penicillin" for just about any old ailment or discomfort from colds to upset stomachs Too many persons have been sensitized by the promiscuous use of penicillin

The drug is and perhaps always will be a very useful antibiotic But it has to be given with reasonable regard for the fact that some people will be allergic to it

Injection Test

Can you make tests to see whether a certain patient is sensitive to it? Yes The simplest one is to inject a very small amount of dilute penicillin between the layers of the skin (called an "intradermal injection") and note whether a wheal, or reddish, rashy spot results

Goldwater Is Looking Forward to Debates With the President

Planning to Join Wife in California for Vacation

BY WALTER R. MEARS
WASHINGTON (AP) — I think when the time comes he'll be willing to debate Goldwater said. He said that late in August 1960 Richard M. Nixon still had not made up his mind to face John F. Kennedy in the series of television campaign debates. Goldwater has said the debates were a mistake for the Republicans and one that contributed to Nixon's defeat.

Is Apprehensive
The senator said he is still apprehensive about debates involving Johnson because he fears U.S. secrets might be aired in the heat of a live television debate. He suggested a revised format skipping the reporters questions that were a fixture of the Kennedy-Nixon debates. Instead Goldwater said his staff and Johnson's could discuss in advance material that could be covered without having to fear secret or top secret disclosures.

Plans Rest
On Saturday Goldwater plans to fly to Newport Beach, south of Los Angeles, to rest with his wife who is vacationing there. He expects to fly back to Washington next Wednesday for a round of talks with GOP members of the House and Senate Aug. 6 and 7.

Goldwater told newsmen on the eve of his departure he was not surprised there was no quick response from the White House after his Tuesday declaration he was "ready, willing and able" to debate Johnson.

Rights Leaders Hit at Demonstrations Ban

Housing is under court injunction forbidding further demonstrations. Stanley Branche, head of the Committee for Freedom Now in Chester, Pa., near Philadelphia, said "The only way we got this far is because of our demonstrations. Everyone's running scared of the white backlash. To me it's nothing but the same old dirty bigotry and dirty prejudice. At a rally of 150 persons Wednesday night Branche called for pickets to march at a paper company today to urge more jobs for Negroes. He has scheduled a street march Friday to protest alleged police brutality. Branche has led several demonstrations in Chester some of which resulted in violence. James McCoy, executive board member of the Pittsburgh branch of the NAACP, said demonstrations would not be staged "unless a situation arises which would require direct action in the form of a demonstration." J. A. Bagsby, president of the Pine Bluff movement in Little Rock, Ark., an affiliate of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee and Congress of Racial Okla., said there might be demonstrations if negotiations between those cities break down. Bagsby said "We will be guided on the local situation rather than by decisions reached on the national level." A spokesman for the NAACP said a previously announced march and rally at the Democratic National Convention next month in Atlantic City, N.J., will be held but will not be any kind of alienating demonstration.

Ruth Turner, executive secretary of CORE's Cleveland chapter, said the summit statement will not alter our plans for what she called a "meeting" today on the City Hall steps to protest alleged police brutality. James Farmer, CORE's national director, and John Lewis, SNCC chairman, concurred in the summit statement but withheld their signatures pending meetings of their steering committees next month.

Await Official Word
CORE officials in Omaha, Neb., St. Louis, Mo., and Columbus, Ohio, said they would await official word from headquarters.

The summit statement was signed by Wilkins, Dr. Martin Luther King, president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, Whitney M. Young, executive director of the National Urban League, and A. Philip Randolph, chairman of the Negro American Labor Council.

Chicagoans Flock to See Kennedy Exhibit
CHICAGO (AP) — Doors were kept open past midnight Wednesday to admit crowds lined up to see the John F. Kennedy memento collection on its last day in Chicago. A spokesman announced that 92,000 persons saw the exhibit during its seven days in Chicago, bringing the attendance to 1,111,111.

Did You Ever Hear The Story About Pheasant That . . . ?

PLACERVILLE, Calif. (AP) — A part-time rancher here claims to have crossed a chicken with a pheasant.

He calls the result the "Mongolian chuck-sant."

"I've never heard of such a thing," Edno Delfino, El Dorado county agricultural commissioner.

Leon Bush, 38, linoleum-layer who lives on a 132-acre fowl ranch near here, said he tried for a year before he got a Mongolian ringneck pheasant to mate with a red hen. He says three chicks have hatched and he has 48 more eggs.

The chicks have chicken bodies with pheasant markings, he said. He plans now to switch to a red rooster and try for a red rooster-pheasant hen mating.

Sen. Engle Dies In Washington

from Sen. Spessard Holland, D-Fla., making a prolonged speech on the civil rights bill, to said. He plans now to switch to a red rooster and try for a red rooster-pheasant hen mating.

Engle rose to his feet, assisted by two aides, stood silently for an agonizing minute and could utter only one audible sound — "a."

Faced More Surgery
Sen. Pat McNamara, D-Mich, offered to introduce the resolution for Engle. The California senator nodded consent. After sitting quietly in his chair for a few minutes, he was virtually carried from the floor by his aides.

Facing a second brain operation April 24, Engle dropped his plans to try for a second term in the Senate.

He had been opposed in the rights bill primary by both Salinger and Cranston and nine others. Many supporters had he died early this morning. The body will be taken to his home in Red Bluff, Calif., for burial. Other arrangements were incomplete.

Doctors said the second operation was "a craniotomy performed to relieve pressure."

U. S. Backed Copper Mines Support Chilean Economy

Favored Communist Candidate Vows to Nationalize Property

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—Copper companies supplies the town around Kennecott's El Teniente mine, the backbone of Chile's economy.

The companies, frequently plagued by strikes, may be taken over by the government after the Sept. 4 presidential election. A communist supported candidate who is running a strong U.S. race, Salvador Allende, says octopus, suffocating us to flatly he will nationalize the mines if elected.

An AP News Analysis

Teniente Mine, 130 miles south of Santiago, told a reporter the U.S. companies "are like a huge octopus, suffocating us to death."

"We need Allende or another because it is afraid of losing copper revenue. So, the workers keep pressing and asking for more all the time, regardless of what they already have."

The government feels the companies' charges go too far. "We try to do what is best for our country, but always keeping well in mind the rights and interests of both the companies and the workers," a high official said.

Not all copper workers complain.

"We live all right," said Jose Sanhueza, 27. "The food is expensive but we have many other compensations including good salaries." He makes around $250 a month.

Controls Extraction Sanhueza works in a section controlling extraction of copper ore at El Teniente Mine. He and his wife and three children live in a three-room apartment at one of the square buildings of five and six floors that make up the town of Sewell, home to some 3,000 workers and their families.

Both Kennecott and Anaconda keep their non-Chilean staffs at a minimum. Out of 7,000 persons working for Kennecott, only 23 are Americans. There are 400 Chilean executives and technicians being paid in dollars. Of the 8,000 persons at Anaconda, 80 are Americans and 330 Chileans earn high salaries paid in dollars.

An executive of one U.S. company says "We don't doubt Allende will take over the companies if he wins. He would probably fix the holdings at an arbitrary value and pay with long-range bonds. To all practical purposes, these bonds would be worthless."

Chilean Laws Allende has said payment would be made "according to the Chilean laws."

Eduardo Frei, a more moderate leftist who is Allende's strongest rival for the presidency, also has expressed himself in favor of nationalization, but in stages. He says he would reach agreement with the companies during the presidential term 1964-70.

The 20,000-member Copper Workers Federation, which includes 8,000 Anaconda and 7,000 Kennecott workers, is dominated by Communist and far-left Socialist labor leaders.

Committee Meeting Set CLINTONVILLE — The Congregational Christian education committee will meet at 7 p.m. Monday at Christ Congregational church. Mrs. Rey Laske is the committee chairman.
